Courthouse Square Arts Guild

You've heard the old folks say that if March comes in like a lion it will go out like a lion, but they never addressed what would happen if it had a lion's head in the middle. So I say, 'Happy Snow Spring' or 'Happy Spring Snow', whichever alides you sled! Easter is a couple of weeks away now and the Churches and schools are having special events. Happily the weather will help us so we can get out and enjoy the activities.

The Courthouse Square Arts Guild is also working on some very exciting activities. The Student Art Show, April 11-13th at Blue Licks State Park, which over 250 entries are expected to be on display. And on May 9-10th, at Blue Licks State Park a Guild Art Show featuring the work of the artists. I do enter, so start to work on your best stuff! And to look a little into the future on July 4-6th there will be Community Quilt and the Craft Exhibiting at the Hill-tonical Neal Build. In past years the displays on historical and art quilts have been extraordinary, and this year there will be and area for three-dimensional art. So mark your calendar for the upcoming events. As always the article features one of the outstanding artists in our area. This month's artist is Cate Wagner. Cate primarily paints in pastels, conte/crayon and graphite. She worked in the design field all her life; however, she became determined to pursue painting as a vocation in 1999 after attending a Wolf Kahn workshop at the National Academy in New York. She has a Bachelor of Fine Arts from More College of Art in Philadelphia, PA and attended Corcoran College of Art and Design, Washington, DC in 2006 and attended Hill College, Greenburg, NC. She has attended the two Solo Exhibitions, one at walk Varden's, Paris, KY and Central Bank Gallery, Lexington, KY. She Craft Exhibiting at the Hill-
