picked as high as second in the region this year and as low as fourth, so the future appears bright for NCHS. "The concern I have is here we are about to start the season and we haven't even been on the field. We've had some make practice hitting but we haven't been outside because of the weather and the condition of the field.

"This year the only thing we get to do is hit. This year we've got a lot of young girls and it will take us midway through the season to be able to adjust to all of that." The Lady Jackets will meet in Lexington. The Lady Jackets will have four opponents in the event. "We play LCA, Lex, Catholic, Tates Creek and Danville. "We play on artificial fields. Our kids get exposure to big high profile tournament. The Lady Jackets have not enjoyed much success in the previous years with the scrimmage games called off, preventing any real exposure to game conditions. Penny Breitz and Bill Martin will coach the junior varsity team. Benno Buckler coaches the middle school team. "If we would have good weather I think we would have had a great season. I think we can repeat what we did last year. We're behind now and it will take us a while to get caught up. As the season begins, the mistakes we might make now we can make at the end of the season if we want to be successful." Breitz said he feels the team has plenty of potential. With minimum depth he hopes the season allows development of the players as a team.
