Ruddles Mills' Days, Historic House Tours, June 14-15

Historic Ruddles Mills, Inc. is sponsoring "Ruddles Mills' Days" on June 14-15, and the 2008 "Gathering" of RAMSHA...

ing events for Historic Ruddles Mills. This non-profit organization is dedicated to the preservation and restoration of the historic places in Ruddles Mills...

Members of RAMSHA will meet at the Ruddles Mills house, and a Bar-B-Q in the evening.

June 15 will feature a Country Ham Breakfast, dedication of a new monument to the Ruddell family, and a tour of the historic forts in Harrison and Bourbon Counties.

The first house on tour is The "Joseph Lawrence Stephens" house, constructed in 1786. The home is listed on the National Registry of Historic Log Houses and the State Registry of Historic Homes...

The second house is The "James Trabour" house located off of Ky 1940. The house and barn, which are in the process of restoration, is a two-story log house with a stone kitchen and fireplaces at each end...

This restoration is a unique project involving the collaborative efforts of Charles Stephens Spears and family, the Ruddles Mills Christian Church, the Kentucky Trust for Historic Preservation and Frank Lally House. The Houses are both nationally renowned historians and 18th Century artisans...

The historic home tours will be followed by a Bar-B-Q dinner and "special" entertainment. Advanced tickets only will be sold for the house tours and dinner.

The house tours, Bar-B-Q and breakfast are fund-raising events for Historic Ruddles Mills, Inc.
