The Headquarters United Methodist Church acknowledged all the veterans present and by lighting a white candle in memory of those who had gone before. Mrs. Malinda Soby played a beautiful medley of patriotic hymns and gave a short talk. The congregation said the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, before Brenda Routt brought the sermon.

The American Legion Post #17 of Nicholas County had a country ham supper and buffet on Friday night. I didn't get to go, but I know many people enjoyed the good food and fellowship.

The Oakland Mills United Methodist Church had a soup and sandwich meal after church Sunday morning, surprising Rev. Brenda Routt for pastor appreciation month and her husband, Toby. Each person told of the things they appreciated about her.

Health Care was given by Rev. Jim Gaunce, his wife Phyllis led the singing. Donna Dixon was the pianist and she sang two songs. Faye Letcher also sang a solo. Robert and Sharon Beckett of Headquarters returned from a week's vacation in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

Two people received Christ into their hearts (husband and wife). They plan to renew their wedding vows next Sunday and be baptized in the river. Phillip will be holding a revival this week in Lexington.

Lois Mitchell returned home Saturday night from U.K. Hospital. She had a car wreck on Thursday night as she was coming home from work. She was taken by ambulance to Harrison Memorial Hospital and flown to U.K. She had a broken neck one broken vertebrae in her lower back and fractures in her spine. On behalf of her I thank all who called about her and prayed for her. There Our communities send get-well wishes to Mrs. Shirley Henderson of Carlisle who entered the hospital during this week.

The Saltwell United Methodist Women met at the church on Monday night with 14 members. There "purpose" is always recited in unison first. Then Phyllis Gaunce always gives a very good devotional. Request for the sick and Missionaries are given, then prayer. The well given program was given by Joyce Smith which is always two programs in one, in Nov., the Thank offering program and the Pledge Service. Many times this is given by Paula and Barbara Snapp. There were announcements given, plans made etc. Molly Smith read minutes of the last meeting and had roll call. There were many sick visits and charities given. Saltwell will help with food at Carlisle's Thanksgiving Dinner. The U.M. Womens conference meeting was reported to be a good one. The delicious meal for tonight was furnished by Esther and Nyri Weisale with Thanksgiving decorations and door prize won by Wyoma Smith. Tonight was Methodist Men's time to be there too and they had 7 men.

The group of Lay Witness people who are on the Prayer Program on Radio, WPTJ, had a meal together at Blue Licks State Park last week honoring about five of their birthdays.
