

NICHOLAS NEWS TRIANGLE HEADQUARTERS - SALTWELL - BARTLEVILLE

By Ramona Hollar George 859-289-4180 ramagor@earthlink.net

Mrs. Alberta Glass fell and broke her hand last Tuesday, after having let X-rayed she had a brace put on it. Dennis Earlywine and Aiden visited her on Sunday.

Stephanie and Samantha Sewell visited Stephanie's dad, Steve and Dorcus Allison on Sunday afternoon. They also visited Bill and Ramona George.

The Irvingville Baptist Church had the 300 service at Johnson Mathers Health Care. They have several singers and their pastor is Rev. Albert Simmons of Flemingsburg.

The Girl Scout Troop of Nicholas County has been busy delivering the orders placed with in October. They have planned a large party for Troops from other counties but I don't know when or where.

The Neal building was the scene of a variety of musicians and instruments on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady were enjoyed the Saltwell United Methodist Church Thanksgiving Supper on Saturday night. A large crowd attended and Kevin Feasack cooked the turkey. Tables were decorated pretty and they enjoyed the fellowship of the wonderful Saltwell church friends.

A large crowd attended the Memorial Service for Mark Hamon on Saturday morning at the Catholic Church in Carlisle. Our communities send heartfelt sympathy and prayers to Dr. Allen and Ann Hamon and their daughters.

ON Saturday night Rev. and Mrs. Gaylor/Gillispie and the Tellivers from Moorefield Church, Mr. and Mrs. Jobie Howard, Phyllis Brady, and Don Adams were among a large crowd who were so uplifted by the Gospel concert of professional singer Mark Bishop had at the Unity Christian Church. He has won multiple awards for songwriting, producing etc. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle were among a large crowd who attended a Veterans Day Service held at Battle Grove Cemetery, Cynthia, on Tuesday. Former State Senator, Dr. Ed Ford, was the main speaker with a reception etc. following at the library.

Phyllis Brady visited Mrs. Tommy Fryman one day the past week at Edgemont Manor Nursing Home. She felt recently and fractured her back, but is doing better.

On Sunday night, Bob Allen Brady was taken to Harrison Memorial Hospital. Monday, they are running tests to try to determine why he fell and badly cut his head. He is not well and his brother, John isn't doing very well either.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Doyle attended church on Sunday at the Curry Methodist Church and also their Thanksgiving dinner. On Nov. 7, he married Darlene Coy. They seem so happy.

Anyone stopping at Susan's Flower Shop would be amazed at so many veterans' pictures on the wall. Mr. Jackie Davis has been trying to collect as many as possible. It has taken some time to have encouraged others to do the same. They copy the picture, laminate it and return the original to the owner while you wait. When our children and their children become adults, what a legacy to have for them to visit. I feel we should honor any veteran as often as we can.....LEST WE FORGET!

ON Saturday night Rev. and Mrs. Gaylor/Gillispie and the Tellivers from Moorefield Church, Mr. and Mrs. Jobie Howard, Phyllis Brady, and Don Adams were among a large crowd who were so uplifted by the Gospel concert of professional singer Mark Bishop

Along with his excellence in academics, Lucas is also a great leader. Lucas volunteered to tutor his classmates, he has even stayed after school to provide extra help for his peers in Algebra 1. Lucas is a wonderful student both inside and outside of the classroom, he has wonderful attitude and shows compassion for everyone around him."

Nora Walden

Nora Walden: Mismatched Shoes and 80's Hairdos

By Mrs. Brianna Whitten. As a teacher, you hope that you have students in your class like Nora Walden. No matter what the assignment is, Nora can always be counted on to get it done on time and with certain "Nora flair." She has a voice, as a writer, that is not often seen in students her age.

Many students in college are unable to use words the way that Nora does. No matter the assignment - writing about Yankee Doodle or her deepest personal memory - she does it with finesse and ease.

Nora is building a wonderful portfolio of her writing. I have also chosen to nominate Nora as an eligible student for the Governor's Scholars for the Arts Program that will take place over the summer. If accepted to GSA, this will be an extraordinary opportunity for her to develop further as a writer.

Remember her name. One day you will say, "I know her before she was famous." I know I will.
