"Spooks"
A goblin at my window,
A monster by my door.
The Pumpkin at my table,
Keeps on smiling more and more.

Poem by Sandra Listaos

Happy Halloween! It's so unbelievable that October has arrived again. All the little ghost and goblins are going to be arriving to our front door step soon.

A few of the guild members have started their Halloween pranks already this year. Larry Mitchell, President of the guild and his trusty side kick' Brad Powell, The Fossil Guy, built a scarecrow that is being exhibited at the Blue Licks State Resort Park. There are some of the funniest scarecrows that were made by different folks in this area. Of course, Clem the artist scarecrow, is the mascot of the guild and the dearest to our hearts. If you and your family haven't been by to check it'out do so; it's lots of fun.

At the guild we are sure gearing up for a "hoot" of a scare for all you helpless citizens of the area this Halloween.

On October 17, 18, 24, 25 and 31 we will be faces painting and doing funny tattoos at Blue Licks State Resort Park in front of the Lodge. At that time the Haunted Trail will be in full force and we will be there to enjoy the fun. All you children or those who are young at heart come over and get a funny face before you get SCARED out of your mind. The cost of these masterpieces are $1.00 face painting and $.50 a tattoo. At any rate come and see us and enjoy the scary, fun attraction at the park.

This past month the Guild held its Annual Membership Art show. The turn out of artist was great as usual. There was oil painting, graphite and charcoal, textile, photography, sculpture, wood carvers and woodworkers, jewelry and a book that was written by one of our members Sherry Howard. I am so happy that such a variety of arts were exhibited. A committee that was headed by Cate Wagoner oversaw the show. Brilliant job guys! There was 95 pieces of art entered by 55 artists. There was a reception for the artist on Saturday and approximately 60 people attended.

Winners of this show was as follow:

1st PLACE went to Timothy Daily of Sharpsburg: " The Grandparents": Charcoal and Pencil

2nd PLACE: Jim Haag of Carlisle "Reflections"

3rd PLACE: Cate Wagoner of Carlisle: "5 O'clock PM Somewhere" Oil

Honorable mention to Ken Macht of Banana Tree Studio, Flemingsburg: Turquoise Pendant

Honorable mention to Jessica Hamilton of Carlisle: "Journey" Yarn and Pipe

People Choice award went to Cate Wagoner of Carlisle: " Reaching for the Light"

Congratulations to all of the artist that entered. You are all winners.

As this article ends I want to wish you a happy, safe Halloween. Go out and enjoy all the fun events that are going on in the area, and remember ART IS NOT A THING: IT IS A WAY."

TRIVIA QUESTIONS FOR OCTOBER

There was a lot of controversy over the integrity of the story for this movie. Skeptics stated there was no way this happened but the inhabitants of this house swear it did! Nevertheless, this terrifying frightening house the audiences did enjoy visiting. The story takes place in a colonial home on the river's edge where of course, six brutal murders had taken' place just a year earlier. The name of this terrifying thriller was "The Amityville Horror." Name the actors that played the roles of George and Kathy Lutz?

Name the actor that played the rolled of the priest that helped the Lutz with their nightmare, as wall begin to drip blood and satanic forces threatened to destroy them and their family?

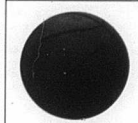
Competition is tough for Football Jackets

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

The road in the 2008 season hasn't been an easy trek for the Nicholas County High School football team. Nicholas County has faced a tough road throughout the season. Friday night, within its own district, Nicholas County faced Lexington Christian – the third-ranked team in Class A. Last season, Paul Rains-coached Lexington Christian nearly defeated perennial power Beechwood in the Class A State Finals. "The kids played extremely hard," Nicholas County Coach Robert Hopkins commented after his team's game versus mighty Lexington Christian. "We were playing the number three team in Class A. We have the number two team coming up in a few weeks in Raceland. We play a very good Pendleton County team this week." The number two team Hopkins is eluding to is Raceland.

Another district opponent, Raceland defeated Lexington Christian 37-35 in Week Five. The Rams (6-0) also own wins over Ashland Blazer, East Carter, Fairview, Greenup County and Paris. Raceland defeated Paris 55-13 Friday night in another district meeting.

Nicholas County is 1-5 through its first six games. The Jackets will face Pendleton County Friday night in an away game. Nicholas County has additional regular-season games remaining versus Bracken County and Bath County.



Nicholas Boys to face Bath in final preseason tuneup

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL

Following a preseason opener versus Williamstown Nov. 15, Nicholas County High School's boys' basketball team will get a final preseason tuneup Nov. 22 against familiar foe Bath County: The Wildcats ranked as one of the 16th Region's top teams last season. Veteran head coach Jim Hicks guides the Bath County Wildcats and has his team headed in the right direction.

Bath County is fresh off of a 20-5 season and ranks as one of the 16th Region's leading programs heading into the new campaign. The Wildcats are reigning 61st District champs. Bath County defeated Rowan County 75-58 in last season's district tournament title game.

Talented guards Taylor Maze and Zak Metz are back to lead the Wildcats.

Like the Nicholas County Jackets, Bath County is heading into the start of preseason practice.

Nicholas County ended the 2007-08 season 3-21. Head coach Michael Cofer and his staff are very eager for the start of the upcoming season.

Nicholas County lost Alex Florence, Jonny Mattox and Tyler Rose to graduation. Junior Kyle Campbell is the leading returnee for the Jackets.

Campbell scored 37 points and pulled down 14 rebounds last season in a win over Richmond Model. He had a double-double effort of 26 points and 22 rebounds in a district game versus Harrison County last season. He has the proven ability to lead.

Nicholas County will open the 2008-09 season at home Dec. 6 versus Menifee County.

COURT NEWS

Criminal Activity Decreases

By Charles Mattox
News Editor
charles@thecarlislemercury.com

Reports of criminal activity decreased by nearly 45 percent from August to September according to a police report issued to the members of the Carlisle City Council Oct. 6.

Carlisle Chief of Police William Denton completed the report, which shows 69 arrests were made by Carlisle police Officers in August with only 38 arrests being made in September.

Traffic related violations decreased from 22 to 10 in that time period, with dropping in half from six to three.

Carlisle officers issued 22 warrants during August and only six during September.

Chief Denton said there has been a dramatic decrease in thefts, especially catalytic converters.

Police had 215 calls for service during the month of August with 186 calls in September.

Ambulance runs increased within city limits from 40 to 46, but fire calls decreased from 14 to 9 in that same time.

The Carlisle police force is now functioning with one less officer. Brad Weaver issued his resignation recently, citing personal reasons to chief William Denton for his departure. Weaver served the community for over one year.

"Shop with a Cop" progam

The Kentucky State Police will be participating in the "Shop with a Cop" program once again this year. The kids range between 7-11 years of age and are selected from various social service agencies along with surrounding schools within the 10 counties in the Post 6 service area. The program allows less fortunate kids to shop with a Kentucky State Trooper at the Dry Ridge Walmart. Last year the donations allowed for 25 kids to select up to $200.00 in assorted Christmas gifts. Our goal this year is to accommodate between 30-35 kids, depending on donations.

Donations for this program need to be received no later than November 15, 2008 and made out to: Kentucky State Police Ladies Auxiliary, Attn: Rhonda Rich. Any donations would be greatly appreciated as it goes directly to making kids in our area have a more fulfilling Christmas.
