Judge Delaney attends training

Kentucky Court of Justice offers continuing legal education program

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 9, 2008 ¾ District Judge Jay Delaney, who serves Harrison, Nicholas, Pendleton and Robertson counties, participated in the 2008 District Judges College hosted Sept. 21-24 in Lexington by the Administrative Office of the Courts. District Court handles juvenile matters, city and county ordinances, misdemeanors, traffic offenses, probates of will, felony preliminary hearings, small claims and civil cases involving $4,000 or less. District judges serve four-year terms.

"Our goal is to equip district judges with the knowledge and skills needed to handle everyday issues that affect their courtrooms," said Chief Regional District Judge Karen A. Thomas, who serves Campbell County and is president of the Kentucky District Judges Association. "This college provided excellent sessions on the latest topics and core functions."

Thomas S. Hodson, professor and director of E.W. Scripps School of Journalism at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, taught a session on media relations that explored the tension that often exists between journalists and the courts and methods for working effectively with the media. Rita Ruggles, program administrator for the state's Department of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Addiction Services, and several judges presented a session on medications associated with mental health issues.

Other sessions included a case law update, landlord and tenant law, juvenile contempt and status offenders, judicial ethics, preliminary hearings, criminal procedures and docket management. Kentucky district judges, Administrative Office of the Courts personnel and attorneys with the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet, the Department of Juvenile Justice and the Judicial Ethics Committee taught the sessions.

Chief Justice of Kentucky John D. Minton Jr. also addressed the judges during the college. This was the first District Judges College since Chief Justice Minton took office.

The Administrative Office of the Courts supports the activities of 4,000 Kentucky Court of Justice employees, including the elected justices, judges and circuit court clerks. The AOC Division of Judicial Branch Education provides regular training colleges for district judges.

BIOGRAPHY OF RAYMOND S. BOGUCKI

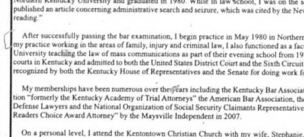
I was born on August 14, 1951 in Hammond, Indiana, the oldest of seven children of Raymond and Bette Bogucki. After graduating from Donald E. Gavit High School in Hammond in 1969, I joined the United States Navy. While in the Navy, I visited ports of call throughout the world and was honorably discharged in November 1972.

I made the decision to move to Kentucky after being discouraged and attended the University of Kentucky, where I received my Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications in 1977. I then gained admission to the Salmon P. Chase College of Law at Northern Kentucky University and graduated in 1980. While in law School, I was on the school's law review committee and published an article concerning administrative search and seizure, which was cited by the New York Law Forum as being "worth reading."

After successfully passing the bar examination, I began practice in May 1980 in Northern Kentucky. In addition to running my practice working in the areas of family, injury and criminal law, I also functioned as a faculty member at Northern Kentucky University teaching the law of mass communications as part of their evening school from 1982 – 1991. I am admitted to all the courts in Kentucky and admitted to both the United States District Court and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals. I have also been recognized by both the Kentucky House of Representatives and the Senate for doing work for the needy and disadvantaged.

My memberships have been numerous over the years including the Kentucky Bar Association, the Kentucky Justice Association "formerly the Kentucky Academy of Trial Attorneys" the American Bar Association, the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and the National Organization of Social Security Claimants Representatives. I was voted the "Best of the Best Readers Choice Award Attorney" by the Maysville Independent in 2007.

On a personal level, I attend the Kentontown Christian Church with my wife, Stephanie, and live on a small cattle farm in Mount Olivet. We have fives sons, three grandsons and a new granddaughter. In Robertson County, my wife and I host a formal pre-prom dinner party for the high school, sponsor activities involving the various athletic teams at the high school, and participate as a sponsorship to the Youth in Christ Convention. These activities have allowed me to nurture my relationship with the youth of the community, and through my interaction with them on a one-to-one basis, I have developed a good understanding of the problems that face out youth and believe that I can be instrumental in solving a good bit of their problems in conjunction with their parents.



I believe I would make the best choice for Family Circuit Judge because I have practiced in this area for over 28 years and demonstrated my knowledge and ability in handling all aspects of family law Furthermore, I have the ability to listen to people and look behind the rhetoric to discover the real facts which are directly impacting upon their lives. As a strong believer in the family and the ability of the family to produce a good society, I will work hard to maintain the integrity of the family through problem resolution.

Ms. Alberta Glass attended a birthday party on Friday for Macy, Kelsey, and Jeff Randolph, given by Pam Randolph at their home.

The 1:30 service at Johnson Mathers Health Care was given by Rev. Julian Hammonds. Mr. Bill Lawson helped with the singing.

A very large crowd attended the Estate Sale of Fred and Lelia Hollar at 130 Saltwell Road. The auctioneer was Mr. was Mr. Vince Wells assisted by Mr. Brad Wells. The sale began on Friday evening and was all day on Saturday. Refreshments were sold by the young adults of Headquarters United Methodist Church. Lelia Mattox was the first baby born there and Layne Hollar was the last.

Co-executors were Layne Hollar, Ramona George, and Gary Hollar.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gaunce and his family took a week end rip walk before last to Norris Lake in Tennessee, then the past weekend James and Phyllis and John and Ann Smith, Faye Letcher, Donna Dixon, and others went on a Lay Witness Mission at Bardstown, KY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle went by train to visit Mr. and Mrs. Rob Doyle and son at Alexandria, Virginia for about five days week before last. They were there for Elijah's first birthday and they also toured about four places around Washington D.C. that they hadn't seen the other two times when they were there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Snapp and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gayle Brady of Headquarters Road certainly enjoyed Ray and Phyllis' 1960 Class reunion held at Blue Licks State Park Saturday Night. There were 43 attending counting many spouses. In the 1960 graduating class, 26 attended with eleven not attending and fifteen have passed away. Several activities made the night very special. Phyllis Brady gave the Blessing. Following the meal, Betty Jo Gillespie and Billy Clark conducted memorial service reading 15 names and dates and lighting candles. Malinda Sosby read a poem. Then a game was played which was questions about many things and places in Carlisle in 1960. Also about five people took part in asking questions or telling of 1960 trivia such as T.V. programs, sports, interesting facts, movies, music or songs and the cost of certain things. One part of the night was each telling about their life and another was a few told of funny things that happened in school. Everyone had a fun time.

Sympathy is extended to the families and friends of three dear people who passed away last week, Frances Broderick, Catesby Bramel and Adalene Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Doyle spent the week end camping at Blue Licks. They and Bobby Brady and Jerry Craig also attended the tractor show at Allison's concrete.

The Methodist Men revival was held last week at the Rosehill United Methodist Church with Lay Speakers each night, Monday trough Friday. They were John Gaunce, Authur Buzzard, David Earlywine, Russell Fryman, and Irwin Dampier representing 5 churches. Sudnay was also Roshill's Old Timers Day. Donald Jenkins told the History of the church. Lunch was served and the "Samaritans" sung in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Feeback made two trips to Mt. Washington last week to attend funerals of friends there. Sharon and Harry were very active in the church there when they lived there..

The Ellisville Homemakers met last Wednesday Oct. 1 at the library. Phyllis Brady gave devotional which is usually the first thing. Twelve members were present. Much discussion was held concerning old and new business. Sonja Fryman and Helen Carol Small were hostess for delicious lunch. A fun auction or rather a white elephant sale was held to help with the projects the club does. Also Friday night at the Elementary school fall festival, the Ellisville Club always has a successful Cake Walk, and several of the club members helped with the food sold including agent Kim Leger.

A correction from last weeks news, the Ellisville Homemakers turned in 1,000 volunteer hours of service at the annual area meeting. Also two more names needed to be added to the United Methodist Women who had passed away this year, from Rosehill, are Christina Morris and Pauline Jenkins.

Rev. Vernon Adams, Paris, brought an exceptionally good sermon at Headquarters Church on Sunday, filling in for Brenda Routt, pastor. Those present were glad to have Andy Fryman there who started treatments again on Monday.

Phyllis Brady was with her sister, Marjorie Fryman, who had throat surgery at Harrison Memorial hospital one day the past week.
