County officials act on sign thefts

Where's your sign?

Or, more importantly, where are all of the road signs that have mysteriously disappeared in Nicholas County and Carlisle?

City and county officials say the problem of disappearing signs is growing and county officials recently took action to help ease the pain associated with the cost of replacing the missing signs.

Officials are growing weary of the petty thefts that cost taxpayers approximately $25 for each removed sign.

"I have a suggestion," said Nicholas County Judge-Executive Larry Tincher with a grin, during the Aug. 12 meeting of the Nicholas County Fiscal Court. "We should do one of two things. We should put razor wire around all of our county signs or we should put a second sign under the first sign saying 'please remove this sign.'"

Magistrate Steve Hamilton suggested placing a few motion sensitive cameras in locations near where some signs disappear regularly.

Robertson County Judge-Executive Billy "Hammer" Allison was present and entered into a gentleman's agreement to assist county officials with the problem.

According to Tincher, Nicholas County taxpayers spend approximately $25 for each sign that must be replaced. Allison has a special printer, which he uses to replace Robertson County signs and he agreed to print Nicholas County signs at approximately half of the cost.

"We were paying a company about $25 per sign and Judge Allison can do it for $12 for small signs and $15 for slightly larger signs," Tincher said. "We'll be able to save some money and we're going to do that every chance we get. It's just another small way of passing savings on to our tax payers."

Allison, who experiences similar sign theft problems in Robertson County, said he was glad to help provide the service, which will not cost Robertson County tax payers any money in the process and may even put a few extra dollars in the Robertson County general fund.

"It's a win-win situation," Allison said.

Nicholas News Triangle Headquarters - Saltwell - Barterville

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doyle had several of the family on Monday night for a birthday supper for the 45 birthday of their son, Jeffrey Lane Doyle. Darlene Coy had made homemade ice cream and brought his cute cake. He received several cards and gifts.

Alberta Glass has been ill the past week, suffering with shingles.

Rev. Vernon Adams and Sue, JaDawna and Seth, Don Adams, Phyllis Brady were among a good crowd who enjoyed a gospel singing by Mike Goodwin at the Paris Church of the Nazarene on Sunday night. It was followed by homemade ice cream and cake and also had a big cake, cards and gifts for the pastor, Rev. Paul Hedge for his birthday.

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Stephen Morris who was in a motorcycle accident on Saturday Aug. 23. He was in a charity benefit ride.

Rev. Brenda Routt and Leota Fryman and many others visited David Doyle and wife Doris the past week. He has fell three times lately. Donnie Doyle built him anew ramp on Friday. Phyllis Brady spent Saturday afternoon unlit late, anxiously waiting the return home of David. Keith Doyle who'd been to Germany with his work at 3M. He and his wife Dorothy, and children Sam and Sarah live by his parents.

Get well wishes got to Mary Snapp of Headquarters Road who recently had Open Heart Surgery.

John Day, Bobby Brady and Many others enjoyed a Dove Shoot at the farm of Dr. Joe Nichols on Labor Day. Several got the limit.

New neighbors have moved into the trailer in Headquarters. They are Whitaker brothers and a nephew.

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Charles "Jake" Florence, husband of Dale Florence, who passed away last week. He was a brother to Betty Livingood. Many people attended visitation on Monday night at Hinton Turner Funeral Home Paris. Funeral on Tuesday. Following visitation Don Adams and cousin Phyllis Brady dined at Jerry's and visited.

The gospel group "Doxology", sung at eh Millersburg Methodist church on Sunday night for their 5 Sunday Hymn singand also Donna Dixon sung at Blue Licks Christian Church.

Several from Nicholas County attended the Southern States meeting and fish fry, which is always a big catered meal (but the fish is fried there) held at Owingsville on Friday night. Sam Reynolds conducted the meeting. Many door prizes were given. Booby Webb won one of nicer ones. This meeting is for Nicholas, Bath, Montgomery and Rowan Counties.

Marshall, of Fayette, Major W.S. Wall, of Harrison, exGovernor Metcalfe and John S. Morgan of Nicholas and others. The crown in attendance was estimated at fully five thousand—the largest political gathering ever assembled in the county. At night Hon. Thomas S. Marshall delivered one of his most humorous and eloquent addresses in the old Courthouse, which was literally crammed with people---a third of whom were ladies. The net result of the great Whig barbecue was that every man on the ticket carried the county by a majority of from 90 to 125, including Mr. Reform, for scarcely had General Harrison taken his seat before he died and John Tyler reformed the Whig party nearly into the grave.

Note:

By careful research for the Old Indian Queen Hotel on the Maysville-Lexington Road, now U.S. 68, I have concluded that the hotel was on or near the home of Allen Ray and Vicki Sparks. In April, 2008, Jo Lynn Garrett, Vicki and I investigated the old cemetery behind the Sparks home. We did a rubbing and found that Arnetts were indeed buried there.

Be sure to investigate the new book our gracious librarian, Rebecca Reid, has acquired for the Nicholas County Library. The name of the book is "Along the Maysville Road" by Craig Thompson Friend. You will find a map, dated 1824, of the old Maysville and Lexington Road with names of residents along the road. If you are puzzled by inferences in the story of wild political activities you can find it easily on the internet. Politics haven't changed, just the way they used it.

Thoughts from... the Pastor's Study

By Rev. Donald Riggs

Don't Let Sin Rule Any Longer

Let me start this morning by asking this question, Romans 6:1

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

6:2-Paul said, God forbid, How shall we, that are dead to sin, live by any longer therein?

Gal 2:19-21, New K.J. "For I through the law died to the law that I might live to God. "I have been crucified with Christ, it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life, which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. "I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain."

Romans 6:3-7, Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into his death? Therefore we buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection: Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin.

I Peter 4:1-2, Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin; That he no longer should live the rest of this time in the flesh to the lust of men, but to the will of God.

Romans 6:8-11, Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him: Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth now more: death hat no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:20, 22 &23 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Closing with this, Galatians 3:26-27 & 2:16, For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For a as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified

If you have not called upon the Lord to save you now is the time! For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved! (Romans 10:13)
