NICHOLAS MUS TRINGLES HEADQUARTERS-SALTWELL-BARTERVILLE

By Ramona Hollar George 859-289-4180
rgeorge1@bellsouth.net
Mrs. Alberta Snapp enjoyed her company, Mrs. Dantia Earlywine and her two sons who ate dinner with her on Sunday. Mrs. Glass has been ill with shingles the past two weeks. The congregation of the Headquarters United Methodist Church decided to do something a little special, like bring toiletries on the 5th Sunday for the children and youth. The generosity of the congregation was amazing, and the youth and children were surprised and pleased. The church also had a new sign the past Sunday made by Mike Sosby. The 1:30 service at the Johnson Mathers Health Care was given by Rev. Howard Livingood. Mrs. Helen McKee was the pianist and Faye Letcher sang a solo. Mrs. Lois Pridemore and Ramona George had lunch Tuesday at the Ponderosa Steak House in Cynthia. Jackie Davis is still looking for people who have pictures of any veterans of any war. He wants people to take them to Susan's Flower Shop on Main Street where they can make a copy while you wait. He wants these by Veterans Day. Rev. Donald Riggs had the 1:30 Service at Johnson Mathers Health Care on Sunday. Rev. Brenda Routt and her husband Toby sang some songs and Brenda also gave a short talk. Dantia Earlywine and her two sons visited her grandmother, Mrs. Alberta Glass of Headquarters, on Sunday, and had lunch with her. Mrs. Glass is still having pain caused by her having shingles for three weeks now. The House of Prayer, led on Calcutta Road, finished a two-week tent revival during which many people visited Jesus into their lives and were sanctified. The past Sunday morning, Rev. Joe Roberts, who had been holding a revival in Lexington, stopped in during the Sunday morning service on his way home in Chillicothe, Ohio. He also does prison ministry in various places in this vicinity. One person found forgiveness for his sins during this service. The Terry J. Doyle Stables won first place on two different horses last weekend at Germantown, with several in the class. Among those that Phyllis Brady visited the past week were Jerry Doyle at Shady-lawn, Mrs. Cecil Fryman at Edgemont, Mr. and Mrs. David Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Fryman, Brenda Nolan, Maxine Whitson, and also visited Dana Doyle at her photography shop in Cynthia. The 1948 and 1949 class of Headquarters - High School met at Blue Licks State Park the past weekend. A good crowd attended.

Schanding (Sarah Dixon) and children of Barterville member was given an obituary with a Birthday dinner for Mrs. Virgie Dixon of Olive Hill. Cyprie Dixon Chambers Center County to help plan the day. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dixon and children and others attended. Mr. and Mrs. Michael (Bridget) Davis are the proud parents of a baby girl, Selby Shinn, born Sept. 11 at Central Baptist Hospital weighing 6 pounds 4 ounces. They returned home on Saturday. The proud grandparents are Becky and Jimmy Todd Davis and Jeff Doyle, and Pam Hatten. Phyllis Brady was attending very large crowds among visitation and funerals of 3 people in a few days. Charles "June" Florence, Paris, husband of Rev. Dale Florence. Also Donnie Jean Fryman, Dog walk held at Ware Furnace Home and then on Saturday Carol Haggis, Lou Ware's. The Funeral home was packed.

Sept. 27, Ann Smith gave a very good program. Each of the members of the Board entertained Sunday night concerning something needed in building a house. Architect, blueprints, foundation, floors, walls, plumbing, electric, windows and roof. Each read verses, etc about what they were holding, then Ann would read after each concerning our Spiritual House, a Christian Life. The project for the month was bringing items for the Methodist Children's Home at Versailles. Dorothy's husband cooked almost all of our delicious meal. While the meeting was going on the ladies could smell fried chicken. Many people, Saturday before last enjoyed attending three things the same day. The "Taste of Harrison County" with craft booths, all around court house and entertainment and also an Antique Car Show and Open House of the Christian Book Store with gospel singing and food and sales. Mr. and Mrs. Andy
