recent concern the organization was facing were those related to energy issues. "We want people to understand the issues and the consequences of what is occurring with our energy sources we use today," he said. "We decided to do this event at Artcroft because it is such a naturally beautiful and artistic place."

Blue Jackets defeated 27:0

By Tobias Hammett
Student Staff/Writer

The Nicholas County football team has lost their game against Fairview on Friday night by 27:0. On top of that, the team will have to play the rest of the season without quarterback Jordan Mynear, who got hurt after a tackle during the game.

"We didn't do a very good job offensively," said Head Coach Robert Hopkins about Friday's game. Referring to the defense, he said that they could have done better as they had missed a lot of tackles.

Coach Hopkins said that the main reason why they had lost was the lack of speed. "It will be all right," he confirmed.

However, he showed himself particularly concerned about the injury of quarterback Jordan Mynear. He hurt his knee Friday night and will not be playing for the Former chair of the KPTCC Janet Tucker, said the following of the organization "KPTCC is about people working together to correct things that are wrong, correct injustices and make a better world. It's about people finding their own voice. One nice thing about KPTCC is that it does have a broad platform. You get to see change those ideas and those positions when you're involved. There's such a diversity of issues and concerns it changes people."

KPTCC Information Officer Jerry Harth said one of the

"A musician must make music, an artist must paint, a poet must write, if he is to be ultimately at peace with himself. What one can be, one must be."

Albham Maslow wrote this insight about the importance of art and the artist's self. He is encouraging us to make music, paint pictures, and write poems for you to grasp and nurture. And remember ART IS NOT A THING: IT IS A WAY.

THIVIA ANSWERS: (1) The pet name Lauren Baccall And Humphrey Bogart called each other was "Slim and Steve." (2) In the movie "To Have and Have Not", the famous lines in movie history was, "You know how to whistle, don't you Steve? You just put your lips together... and blow." They love continued and Lux host Willam Knightley persuades Bacall to blow a special gold whistle that Bogart gave to commemorate the film's most famous scene. When Bogie died in January 1957, Bacall placed the whistle in his coffin.

THIVIA FOR SEPTTEMBER: Let's continue with the strong silent types, Gary Cooper. Gary built a career out of playing peaceful good guys who weren't above using force to obtain justice. One of his most memorable films was "The Westerner" in 1940. He had reservations about this film due to the fact that he felt it would be a secondary role to Judge Roy Bean. Name the actor that plays alongside Gary Cooper in this wonderful film? (2) In the next two years Cooper won and Oscar with his portrayal of a World War I hero. Name the movie?
