Rotary Hosts 12th Exchange Student

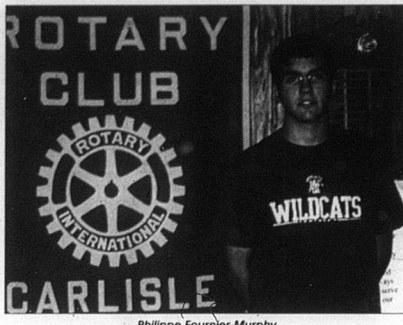

The members of the Carlisle Rotary Club have welcomed their 12th Rotary International Youth Exchange student into the community for the 2008-09 school year.

Philippe Fournier-Murphy arrived in Nicholas County recently from Toulouse, a city of 400,000 in the south of France. He was welcomed into the community with a Family of Rotary country picnic and 'getting to know you' evening.

He has become a member of the Nicholas County High School Marching Band and is looking forward to his senior year here and to his graduation as an NCHS Bluejacket.

The first of his host families during his year in Nicholas County is that of the Ricky Brodericks on Whetstone Road.

Philippe is the 12th Rotary International Youth Exchange student, and the second student from France, to be hosted by the Carlisle Rotary Club.

City Council Candidates

Carlisle voters will have nine candidates to choose from when voting for the six city council positions this November.

All six current council members have filed for reelection, as have three other citizens.

Carlisle City Council Candidates are Sandy Ritchie, Betty Jo Booth, Eugene Hall, Doug Garrett, Billy Mac Goussie, Tommy Crawford, all of whom are incumbent council members. Other candidates are John Jones, Betty Crockett Fay and Freddie Marshall.

Steve Linnville is the sole candidate to run for school board in District 1, Headquarters and Sherry Uptagraf is the sole candidate to run for school board in District 6, City Building/Mathias.

The Mercury will cover other candidates and the offices they seek as the election nears.

Your Wedding Season Style Guide

(NAPS)—With warm weather abound, so begins another familiar time of year: wedding season. As a $70 billion industry, weddings range from intimate and modest to extravagant and high priced.

Remember to focus attention on small details to make your wedding truly unique.

Bring on the Bubbly A simple way to instill a sense of luxury is to treat guests to a chilled glass of bubbly as they arrive at the reception.

Plan A Great Wedding Style On A Budget

(NAPS)—There is good news for the many engaged couples searching for easy ways to save money without sacrificing style.

1. Schedule an off-season wedding. Even in matters of the heart, the laws of supply and demand apply.

2. Custom invitations without the custom price. It's amazing what you can do with one simple invitation.

3. Not just for brides anymore. Today's registries are for much more than china and crystal.

that includes electronics, outdoor gear and the must-have gadgets for making the most of their new lives together.

4. Cut the guest list. The simple truth is that there is no quicker, easier way to control the budget than by limiting the size of the event. Remember, single guests can be invited without a "plus one."

5. Bridal party gifts that do double duty. No need for expensive bridal party favors your friends won't use.

ideas on reception decor and photos. Photographers can be expensive.

6. A small budget doesn't have to mean your big day will be short on style.
