HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Jackets upend Bath County in season-opener

Despite losing well over half of its starters from last season's team to graduation, Nicholas County picked up and played well Friday night at Bath County in a high school football season-opener.

The Jackets were able to battle back from an early deficit and defeat Bath County 22-17. Nicholas County got past host Bath County thanks in part to a solid ground game.

"It was a good win," Nicholas County Coach Robert Hopkins commented. "The kids are surprising us. Everyone played hard. They all stepped up and played well. Our kids wanted to win."

Caleb Pope led Nicholas County on the ground, rushing 19 times for 147 yards. Jessie Smith was the second-leading rusher for the Jackets and led Nicholas County in scoring, finishing with two touchdowns and 62 yards via 18 carries. Wes Hopkins tallied 41 yards through 10 carries for the Jackets.

In all, Nicholas County rushed 48 times for 245 yards, averaging 5.1 yards per carry. Nicholas County quarterback Zach Lemons completed two-of-four passes for 27 yards and a touchdown. Pope hauled in two catches for 27 yards and a score as the Jackets prevailed in the first game of the season.

The Nicholas County offensive line allowed only one sack in the regular-season opener. Offense-wise, Nicholas County outgained Bath County 245-218 in terms of total yardage. Bath County racked up over half of its yardage through the air. The Wildcats finished 5-of-17 for 124 yards through the air. Bath County picked up 94 yards via 22 carries.

The Nicholas County defensive unit held the Bath County offense to just 10 points.

"We stepped up defensively," Hopkins added. "It was a team effort and we were able to get the win."

Nicholas County will look to get its second win of the 2009 season this Friday night when it hosts Fleming County in a home game.

COURTHOUSE SQUARE ARTS GUILD

Invitation to Love

Come when the nights are bright with stars
Or when the moon is mellow;
Come when the sun his golden bars
Drops on the hay-field yellow.
Come in the twilight soft and gray,
Come in the night or come in the day,
Come, O love, whenever you may,
And you are welcome, welcome.

-Paul Laurence Dunbar-
(First African American poet to reach national prominence.)

As August 2009 comes to a close and September days make their arrival the guild has had another exciting month. On August 7 at the Central Bank Gallery in Lexington, a reception was held from 4:30 to 6:00pm to celebrate the opening of art work from the artist in the Courthouse Square Arts Guild. The reception was held on the third floor of the Bank. The exhibit will be on display August 7th –28th from 9:00 am –4:00pm Monday thur Thursday, and until 6:00 pm on Friday. Hope you can get up there and see this wonderful exhibit. Our special thanks toMr. John Irvin for his continuing support and encouragement of artist in this rural area.

Speaking of artist, The Courthouse Square Arts Guild Corner Studio is excited to announce that Sept 26th, 27th and 28th the guild is offering a workshop, " Oil Painting with Dreama Tolle Perry." The three-day workshop will immerse you into the art of still life painting. Dreama's speciality is working with transparent oils to achieve depth in her painting.

Dreama, a Kentucky Artist was raised in a rural area of Kentucky. She has attended many workshops with brilliant instructors to develop her talent.. She has been oil painting for twenty years and her paintings are breathtaking. If you would like to enroll in this workshop notify me at (606) 267-3233 for information. Limited number of students will be excepted.

September 26th, Oct. 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 8th –10th and 15th-17th the Fourth Annual Membership Art Show opens at the Corner Studio in Conjunction with "Saturday In Carlisle"events. Offical opening of the show is Sept 26th. Both 2 and 3 dimensional arts will be shown. The entry fee is $10.00 individual membership, $15.00 family membership and $5.00 student membership. If you have any questions call Cate at (859) 289-6893 or Larry at (859) 289-3185

We are so happy to have the Corner Studio open every Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the thanks goes to our next artist of the month, Norma Buckler.

Norma is retired from Bell south and has worked in Artcera Gallery in Delray Florida, Paradox Gallary, Hang-up Gallery and the Ringling Museum in Sarasota Florida. She worked at the Blue Licks State Park Museum and now we are lucky to have her smiling face at the Corner Studio.

Norma was borned in Nicholas County and her family moved to Bourbon County when she was a very small child. She started painting while in high school and studied fine arts for two years at the university. With private painting lessons and lots of practice, her minatures are very beautiful pieces of art. As a matter of fact, her work is on display in the Ky Gateway Museum Gift Shop in Maysville.

Norma's other interest is her old home that she lovingly refers to as the "Old Homestead", which was build in 1793. Thanks again Norma!

So as another August closes and the hot summer slowly returns to fall, take time and enjoy an adventure with your family. And remember, "Art is not a thing, it's a way."

Faithful companion

This potato, which strangely resembles a poodle, grew in Nicholas County only a few feet from the graves of the family's beloved pet poodles. The owner believes it is a sign that the poodles still love their family.
