Jackets defeat Williamstown in scrimmage

FALMOUTH - Nicholas County emerged victorious Saturday following a pre-season boys' high school basketball scrimmage versus Williamstown at Pendleton County. The Jackets claimed an early lead and pulled away from Williamstown, defeating the Demons 60-36. Williamstown (10-16) comes in as the 32nd District along with tradition-rich quarter like I would like to have but that's something that we'll continue to work on. We want to be able to finish strong each game. Nicholas County executed well on the offensive end on numerous possessions during the pre-season game. "Shooting the ball should be one of our strengths," Cofer confided. The Jackets resumed pre-season practice Monday evening, watching film from the weekend scrimmage. Cofer was pleased to see his squad playing as a team during the exhibition game. "These guys have played with a team concept throughout the pre-season," Cofer commented.

Dalton Hampton is the 17 year old son of Scott Hampton and Cynthia Ritchie. His favorite subjects is Psychology and History. He plans to attend UK with an undecided major. Dalton enjoys sports, cars, movies and music. His favorite memory of school is winning the golf cup his sophomore year over the seniors.

Nicholas County ended the 2008-09 season 9-16 following a loss to familiar foe Deming in the opening round of the 38th District Tournament. The Jackets lost DR Purvis, Darius Workman and Tyler Hunt to graduation but return several experienced players. Nicholas County, now less than one week away from tipping off the 2009-10 campaign, will host St. Patrick on Monday, Nov. 30 in a season-opener.

Courthouse Square Arts Guild

Courthouse Square Arts Guild members recently at Blue Licks Battlefield State Resort Park to provide assistance with their holiday decorations. The wonderful community organization decorates a tree in the lobby of the Worthington Lodge each December. Courthouse Square Arts Guild members: Kathy Johnson, Louise Zachary, Carol Power, and Juanita Hunt hung beautiful hand-painted and hand-crafted ornaments made by guild members on a tree to promote the importance of art in the community. These unique decorations are sure to put a smile on the faces of visitors coming to enjoy holiday parties and other festivities at the park during this special time of year. Guild members also work with the youth conducting workshops for children. This spring the park will partner once again with CSAG to showcase the art work from local schools in the 5th Annual Student Art Show. The Courthouse Square Arts Guild's primary mission is to provide a wide variety of opportunities to area artists and crafters. This is achieved by exhibitions, art education, marketing support, community-wide appreciation, activities and supportive relationships with fellow artists. The group has recently acquired a fantastic exhibit and class space in downtown Carlisle. Visit the Corner Studio to see the amazing artistic talent of this area. If you
