MERCURY TRIANGLE HEADQUARTERS - SALTWELL - BARTERVILLE

Compiled by Phyllis Brady

The Russell United Methodist Church had their Christmas program on Sunday morning and also had dinner at church. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Davis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady were among 75 people who enjoyed the Woodman of the World Christmas Supper on Friday night held at the H Center, Cynthia, Jeff Doyle Representative and Financial Advisor, gave a brief talk. Charles and Shelby Doyle did all the decorations and although part of the meal was potluck they cooked the turkey and ham, tea, etc. They must have given 25 or more door prizes (wrapped gifts to everyone there. Molly Smith read minutes and roll call with each member and their families. Several Christmas cards were read. Ann Smith presented a special membership pin to Joyce Brady for all her work. Among those Phyllis Brady visited last week were Jennelle Price, Leona Riggs, Meryl Padgett Patton, Mary Bell Selvaige and Sharon Beckett continues to take therapy and last almost every day. Patients at Johnson Maters misses her so very much. They ask how she is and when she's coming back. Everyone is so thankful that Linda B. George is better and back to work.

Lady Jackets drop district game to Harrison County

CYNTHIANA - Visiting Nicholas County 38th District front runner Harrison County Monday night. The Lady Jackets, however, couldn't overcome take host Harrison County. Nicholas County led 13-12 at the end of the opening quarter but Harrison County swiped a scoring advantage in the final three, eight-minute frames. Harrison County made up for a less than ideal start, outscoring Nicholas County 16-7 in the fourth quarter en route to a 63-46 win. Despite faltering late, Nicholas County enjoyed a solid outing against its top 38th District foe. "The girls played very hard," Nicholas County Coach Jennifer Cornett commented. "The game was there for us to take. We shot the ball better from the free throw line and finished shots, we just didn't play very well on the defensive end of the floor on defensive rotations. These are little things that we need to work on and hopefully we will use this game as a learning experience."

PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Petrea Mitchell 7 for 8 Saturday against Fleming and 4 for 9 and 2 for 3 free throws against Harrison. Kyle Campbell 34 points 9 rebounds 7 assists against Harrison.
