Traditions Christmas is such a special time of year, full of so many wonderful traditions. These family traditions are important to me. Over the past 26 years, Cindy and I have celebrated Christmas in at least 16 different locations in three separate continents. When everything else in our life was constantly changing, the only consistency that kept us feeling anchored were those family traditions.

Five pointer

Brittany Layne shot her first five pointer back at the Clay Farm. Brittany is the 6 year old daughter of Darrell and Ouida Layne.

NOTE: Although the photo makes it appear that the barrel is pointing at Brittany, it is actually pointing at a safe angle behind her. Still, it serves as a good reminder for every hunter to practice muzzle awareness and do their part to prevent accidents.

I really enjoy the Christmas season! Everything from the church pageants to the rushing of shoppers at the stores, but most of all I really love the Christmas music. Every year you get into the Christmas music to get the holiday shoppers into the shopping mood.

Thoughts from the Pastor's Study by the Rev. Donald Riggs

Who do men say that I am? Matt 16:13-17. 13- When Jesus came into the town of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of Man am? 14- And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist, some Elias, and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.
