DOLLS OF DESTINY: OUR KENTUCKY HERITAGE

Dr. Mary Ellen Lucas is the daughter of Ben H. and Laura Pumphrey. She grew up in Carlisle Kentucky; graduated from Carlisle High School; received the B. S. Degree from Butler University with majors in History and English; received the M A. Degree from Northern Kentucky University in Education: received the Ed. Degree from the University of Kentucky. She has taught in the public schools for forty-two years and served as a supervisor of student teachers at Northern Kentucky University for seven years.

Dr. Mary Ellen Lucas uses porcelain dolls to give an overview of Kentucky's rich history. The program includes: Daniel Boone, Mary Todd Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln, Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair. Soldiers of American wars and various figures of folklore.

She has made over 150 dolls for her history programs using design cues from history and literature. These dolls range in size from a petite 11" to an impressive 38" tall. Each doll is dressed in a period costume personally designed and made by Marry Ellen

She is one of the featured artist in the book

Contemporary American Doll Artist and Their Dolls. Kathy Witt, the author, states, "By using dolls in historic programs, it lets others experience the past that is so necessary in understanding today and in hoping for great

Please join the Red Hat Dazzler's in enjoying this great program. The Sonshine Sisters will provide the food. The cost is $10.00 per person. The program will be February 26th at 6:30 PM in the Fellowship Half.

Reservations must be made not later than February 22nd. You may contact Jeanette Hughes (289-5389); Dottie Marshall (289-2051); or Ginny Smith (289-7490) for reservations.
