Thoughts from the Pastor's Study by the Rev. Alan Murphy

We are fast approaching one of America's favorite holidays and in our nation many of us have already begun planning our Thanksgiving...

Thanksgiving was a sort of last hurrah about the security and (for a moment) dangers of winter. We still remember and have passed around to our friends and families to extend invitations...

Thanksgiving tends to be a day on which we stuff ourselves silly with all the food we can pull together while surrounded by as many friends and family as we could pull together...
