I have entered a new era in my local history research. My fascination continues to grow into the activities surrounding our communities and the individuals within those communities during the American Civil War.

Hard to comprehend that soldiers who grew up alongside one another in this part of the state, even blood brothers, would find themselves on opposing ends of the battlefield throughout the Civil War.

Both joined the 100th US Colored Infantry. She is survived by two sons, Arthur and Robert, and several nieces and nephews. Deceased are four brothers: Robert, Billy, Thomas, Leon and Frank Ruble; and three sisters: Jane Miller, Esther Mankins and Bernice Hlatky.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor,

I would like to take the time to thank the students and staff of the New Beginnings Christian Academy. The Academy had a wonderful Veterans Day celebration at their school. It was an honor to be surrounded by fellow veterans that served in conflicts from around the world.

Respectfully, Kevin R. Booth, Carlisle, Ky

Hey there, Pigirl!

Somewhere, hidden in one of the advertisements in this paper is a plump, juicy turkey - exactly like the one right here (except maybe a wee bit smaller). Drop off or mail me the form to our office at 218 N. Locust, Carlisle, Kentucky by November 21st. Drawing held on November 24th.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

We would like to express our thanks to Sheriff and Mrs. Bridges, Mark Hughes & Son Auto Shop, and the residents of Carlisle, KY. On Sunday, Nov. 1, we were passing through town and got lost on Route 57. The road made a sharp turn but our rental car could not handle it, spun around and landed in the ditch. We were five hours from home with a totaled car and no funds or family to help us.

The residents of Nicholas County have found exceptional public servants in both Sheriff Dick Garrett and Donniea. They exemplify that rare combination of compassion and professionalism to stand face in many other communities. We are most grateful to them both as well as to the citizens and towing company personnel who helped us so much. We will always remember your kindness that day!

John Gilbert Hannah McCullough, Carlisle, KY 42536

Bread of Life

Matthew 23:23-28 My son, attend to my words, incline thine ears unto my sayings...

This is God's prescription for an abundant and healthy life. If you need it, this is the power of God's word which you need in you. If you put the word of God in your heart, and if they die, you will get paid. The power of God is always there for the believer who will take the time to put the word of God in his heart, not his head, but down in the spirit, by meditating and believing and refusing to deny.
