Middle School Jackets top Bath County in three games

The Nicholas County Middle School boys' basketball program continued to roll at home Monday night, defeating visiting Bath County in a trio of games. Nicholas County posted wins over Bath County in seventh-and-eighth grade, seventh grade games. The Jackets led 32-10 in the first quarter, then broke for Thanksgiving. The month of December will afford the Nicholas County Middle School basketball program numerous games. More on the games played between the Nicholas County and Bath County boys' basketball programs follows.

Mynear makes Union College baseball team

BARBOURVILLE — Another former Nicholas County High School student-athlete will play at the next level. Over the summer, shortly after graduating from Nicholas County High School, Jordan Mynear signed to play baseball at Union College. Mynear, an infielder/pitcher, helped to lead Nicholas County to a 16-11 record. Nicholas County enjoyed a solid 2009 season. During Mynear's senior campaign, Nicholas County finished runner-up in the 10th Region All-Classic, Bluegrass Conference Tournament and 38th District. The Jackets upended Mason County in the opening round of the 10th Region Tournament. After reaching the 10th Region Tournament in 2003, making him the seventh player to hold the post since the sport was reinstated at the school in 1974. Osborne has compiled a 258-101 record during his first six seasons at Union, which included a pair of 48-win seasons in 2006 (24-4), George Rogers Clark (22-12), Scott (21-12) and Campbell County (18-10).

Jordan Mynear

Mynear emerged as a solid pitcher during his prep career at Nicholas County. Several the Nicholas Counties will progress during his collegiate career. Among those watching closely will be his former high school coach. "They recruited him in row and won the NIAA South Central Super which competes in the Regional to advance to Appalachian Athletic Series for the first time in program history. The Bulldogs went 1-2 at the 2008 NIAA World Series to place fifth. In 2009, Union posted a 44-12 record and advanced son in February. Union National Championship Champion.
