COURTHOUSE SQUARE ARTS GUILD

By Regina Barnes

"Come send the wind to the heavens one day, Come to the meadows and we will play. Put on your dresses and go to the market and gold. For summer is in bloom. And the days grow cold."

Happy Fall Y'all!! My favorite time of year is here. The nice warm weather and the beautiful fall leaves...

The activities of the Courthouse Square are spectacular! We have some very exciting activities...

On October 2nd, 3rd, and 4th the guild will be sponsoring a workshop by the nationally renowned artist Larry Trumble.

From: Mr. Frost, originally from Nicholas County, retired from the US Geological Survey...

After retiring to Washington, DC, Frost was selected into the prestigious Washington Arts Club...

He was chosen as one of six artists selected from hundreds to copy the "Old Master's" at the National Gallery of Art...

In 1985 Frost was chosen by the Boy Scouts of America to produce their official 75th Anniversary painting... and selling the collector prints. Frost taught advanced adult classes at the Princeton Art Guild and the Hopkinton Art Guild...

He presently is a member of the Penitentiary Society of America, Jacksonville, Florida...

He is an avid sailor and has spent much of his time lecturing and teaching art privately and in art workshops...

If you are interested in taking this three-day workshop call us at (606) 267-3233 after 6:00 p.m.

FOR SEPTEMBER. Since we're getting close to Halloween let's talk about things that go "bump in the night."

Ghost go by a dozen different names—spooks, apparitions, phantoms, specters etc. and so do the story tellers that range from Shakespeare to Stephen King...

Members exhibit their art on that Saturday and three week-ends thereafter. Cash prizes are $75.00 for 1st Place, $50.00 for 2nd Place...

Wednesday, September 23rd from 4-6 p.m. ANSWERS FROM AUGUST: Rod Rider made his first debut as comic strip character in the 1930's who played the barter?
