School Board discusses student safety

By Eric Tolson

The members of the Nicholas County Board of Education decided that safety is the primary issue of concern in their implementation of the Mandatory School Safety Training Session at Tuesday night's regular board meeting.

"The events of last Friday have brought this issue of safety to the forefront again," said Shawn Parrish, Principal of Nicholas County Elementary School. "Since I've been a teacher and principal, my concern has always been to keep faculty and students in the building and safe. Our procedure of letting people come in during the morning has been loose and we've been very fortunate that we haven't had any major incidents."

The event that Mr. Parrish is referring to is the recent tragedy at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newton, Connecticut, in which 27 lives were lost in a school shooting.

"We take care of the students just fine all day from when they get to school until they dismiss," continued Parrish. "They safely get from class to class and I feel that they get to where they are going just fine. It's unfortunate that there are times where we have to do this, it's time that we make the move. We've talked quite a bit over the weekend and today as well about what to do. Our plan on Friday, when we didn't have many details as to what had actually occurred in Connecticut, was to stop everything on Monday. Mr. Reid received a fax over the weekend about the incident and we had decided to send out letters of notification to the parents of the students. We thought it would be best to go ahead and get everything in place and get it implemented for long term safety. It is some pain up front, but it's nothing like what the people in Connecticut are going through. I'd much rather battle somebody over something small than to have one of these incidents here."

"Some parents have called and complained about this," said Sherry Uptegraft. "They complain that this is taking the parents out of the school."

"The parents can still check into the school and get a pass or speak with a teacher about concerns they're having," said Superintendent Greg Reid.

Reid went on to discuss safety regarding the windows in the school.

"I have spoken with many people about getting the windows at both schools reinforced to keep people from shooting the glass out or kicking in the glass and getting into the school," said Reid. "We want to welcome parents into the school and do as much as we can with them, but on the other hand, we don't know what kind of evil exists in the world, more so than ever. If we inconvenience the parents, I'm sorry. But safety has to be first so that we never see anything like this happen

Fiscal Court agrees to pay half of fire bill

 Fire bill brings out strong emotions at the Tuesday night fiscal court meeting.

The Nicholas County Fiscal Court held their monthly meeting on Tuesday night with the main discussion being about the fire bill that remains at large. Fire Board Member Jay Morford, City Fire Chief Jim Biddle and Mayor Kevin Booth attended the meeting. Judge Executive Lyons asked Morford, if the fire board had discussed the bill at the last fire board meeting? Morford explained to Judge Lyons that no action had been taken at the last meeting, the fire board members decided to table it until the court meeting took place.

Fire board members have been trying to get the issue resolved but have had no luck thus far. Jay Morford, and Tracy Brown, attended a Fiscal court meeting earlier in the year, to seek guidance on the matter. Court member agreed that they should go to the Carlisle City Council meeting to discuss this matter with them. County Attorney Dawn Letcher, drew up a letter of request to meet with Mayor Booth and the council, but the request was denied by Mayor Booth.

At the November City Council meeting which Morford and Brown attended. They were told by Mayor Booth and City Attorney Peter Newberry, "they have no dog in this fight, this is an issue between the City and the County."

Morford said, "I want to apologize to City Fire Chief Jim Biddle, the fire board didn't mean to offend anyone, and I certainly don't want to hurt anyone over this, I feel that we need to get this behind us, so that we can move forward without this cloud hanging over us as a City and County."

Morford had made a recommendation to go before a mediator and let both city and county present their sides of the story, but Mayor Booth told Morford that was not going to happen.

County Attorney Letcher asked, "My understanding when I spoke to Mr. McCord, fire board chairman, was that the board was willing to pay a portion of the bill but not the truck usage. Is that still correct?"

Morford explained that the board's first intentions were to pay the bill, but it was brought to their attention by the former mayor Ronnie Clark that the city fire bills the homeowners insurance for $75.00 for the truck usage, but Chief Biddle and Mayor Booth both stated that they do not bill homeowners insurance for anything.

"How much is the bill?" asked Randolph.

The total amount of the bill is $4,615.00 for runs from May 4 to May 27th, 2012. Charges consisted of $75.00 per hour for truck usage, $25.00 per run for personnel, $35.00 per run for chief, for a total of 10 runs. The only item in question was the amount of $1,875.00 for truck usage.

Booth said, "If it happened years ago, we can't find any records of any charge of homeowners insurance for the truck usage."

Morford added that the fire board members didn't want to be a part of double dipping if the city was billing the insurance companies

Judge Lyons said, "The fiscal court wouldn't have a problem with paying this if it weren't for the Fire Department and board being a taxing district. The fiscal court can only appoint three members to the board. Whatever we need to do to get this matter resolved, we will do. The court shouldn't have to take care of this due to it being a taxing district"

Mayor Booth said, "Mutual Aid never dis-

A Carlisle Police Officer has entered a plea of not guilty to the misdemeanor charge of passing a loading/unloading school-church bus, 1st offense.

Carlisle Police Officer, George Ballard, 29, entered a plea of not guilty to the charge in Nicholas District Court last week on Dec. 12.

According to court documents, the alleged offense occurred on Oct. 3 of this year. Ballard allegedly was "operating a city police cruiser" on that day according to school employee Larry Adamson who filed a criminal complaint against Ballard. Adamson's complaint states that while in a police cruiser, Ballard was travelling 'in a direction heading toward the bus, ignoring the activated (bus) lights and stop arm of the bus," and "passed subject bus as students were unloading."

According to the complaint the alleged incident occurred when "2 (two) students" were exiting the bus on "Broadway Street, between North Street and Henry Street."

All persons are innocent until proven guilty or pleading guilty. Officer Ballard has faithfully served the citizens of Carlisle and Nicholas County without any other alleged incidents thus far this year. He remains on duty.

A Carlisle man charged with several criminal offenses entered guilty pleas and signed a plea agreement recently to serve five years in prison.

Joshua Day, 19, signed plea agreements with Commonwealth Attorney Doug Miller and his own attorney Matthew Perdue on Nov. 26, in which Day pled guilty to the charges of complicity to commit burglary, 2nd degree; unlawful transaction with a minor, 2nd degree; theft by unlawful taking (two counts), criminal mischief, 3rd degree, (two counts) and one count of burglary, 3rd degree.

Day allegedly committed the offenses in March of this year, according to court documents.

As part of the plea agreement Day will be sentenced to five years in prison and may or may not be eligible for parole or probation

Nicholas Circuit Judge, Honorable Jay Delaney ordered a presentence investigation report before his scheduled sentencing Dec. 17.

As part of the plea agreement Day is also ordered to pay approximately $865 in restitution to Mike Phillips and $552 to More Than Hardware, and an additional $600 to Scott Allison, in connection to his charges.

Day was indicted by members of a Nicholas County grand jury on July 16 following the testimony of Carlisle Chief of Police Darrell Layne.

Heaven Is A Lot Like Kentucky

By Charles Mattox

"I appeal to any white man to say, if ever he entered Logan's cabin hungry, and he gave him not meat; if ever he came cold and naked, and he clothed him not. During the course of the last long and bloody war, Logan remained idle in his cabin, an advocate for peace. Such was my love for the whites that my countrymen pointed as they passed, and said, Logan is the friend of the white men. I have even thought to live with you but for the injuries of one man; Col. Cresap, who last spring, in cold blood, and unprovoked, murdered all the relations of Logan, not sparing even my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any living creature. This has called on me for revenge. I have sought it: I have killed many: I have fully glutted my vengeance. For my country, I rejoice at the beams of peace. But do not harbor a thought that mine is the joy of fear. Logan never felt fear. He will not turn on his heel to save his life. Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

most often called Chief Logan by Kentucky Pioneers. The above speech was delivered in 1774, to the 4th Earl of Dunmore; John Murray, the British Royal Governor of Virginia, following the Massacre of Yellow Creek, in which all of Chief Logan's family members were slaughtered.

"On Easter Sunday, 1788 a family named Shanks, just settled, was killed out on Cooper's Run Bourbon County. News came to Grant's Station very quick and to me at our cabin. I was there the next morning. There were five killed. One was a prisoner taken. They had cut her petticoat off to her knees. They found they would be overtaken and they killed her. There were seven or nine Indians. We killed two of them."

Spring, 1788 near the present community of Hilltop in southern Fleming County

The warriors had dismounted and were walking their horses briskly up the hillside. They needed a slight chance to catch their breath before pushing them hard when they were closer to the Ohio River.

The whites were following them, and though they would surely outnumber their small raiding party of Shawnee and Mingo warriors, the loathsome militia soldiers would never dare cross the Ohio River unless they had an army of several hundred.

There were seven of the warriors still alive. One had been killed during the attack on the Shanks cabin and another had stayed behind after being wounded to slow the advance of the pursuing militia.

The warriors had clubbed and scalped their sole female prisoner shortly after that.

As the group reached the summit of a small hill they stopped and readjusted their packs of plunder, tied to the string of stolen horses.

The warrior called Sleeping Wolf approached the war captain and handed him his British musket. He then opened his hunting shirt to reveal a bullet wound to his side. He then reached into a feathered medicine bag strapped to his horse and retrieved a section of twined buffalo hide strap and a small wooden peg that was sharpened on one end, which he held aloft. From the other side of his horse, he retrieved his bow and a quiver of arrows.

All of the warriors passed by him one at a time and touched his shoulder before making a sacred hand signal to him and toward the sky before moving quietly and quickly onward.

They did not look back and he stood there in silence as he watched them descend the other side of the small hill before finding his place to die.

He would stake himself out and sacrifice himself so that his friends might escape.

The British musket and the horse he had given to his war captain would be passed along to his infant son.

He examined his wound and let his mind wander to when he was himself a young teenager, living a serene life in the village of Gnadenhutzen.

It had been six years ago in the spring of 1782 when the white Devil named Colonel David Williamson had rode into their peaceful village leading 160 Pennsylvania militia.

His entire clan had only recently converted to Christianity and their days were spent praying as they tended the crops and hunted the woods in their small Ohio village.

The militia divided the 28 men, 29 women and 39 children, into two large huts and told them they would be put to death in the morning. The children, all housed in the same hut, spent the night praying.

Sleeping Wolf had been tied next to one of the walls of the hut and was among the last of the children to be clubbed and that had only been a glancing blow. He had slid beneath the wall and made his escape.

Only one other child had survived and then after he had been scalped alive. The two huts, housing all the bodies, were then burnt to the ground.

Sleeping Wolf had grown into adulthood and sought revenge. He had found it, but he had also reconnected with his humanity along the way. Even at the Shanks cabin, when one of the small girls, Susan Shanks, had ran from the cabin and hid in a hollow log, he had seen it, but had remained silent and allowed the little girl to live.

A noise from the base of the hill warned him of the approaching militia soldiers. The one they called Stucker would be with them and perhaps Cassidy and the one called Sudduth.

He tied a loop in one end of the buffalo tug and attached it to his right ankle. The other end, which was attached to the sharpened wooden stake he pushed securely into the ground and was thus 'staked out.'

He would not run. He began whispering his death prayer as he placed an arrow onto his bowstring and drew the bow back until the arrow fletching was at the corner of his mouth.

He took a deep breath and at the point where he naturally paused between inhaling and exhaling, he released the arrow and then quickly fired others in rapid succession. When his arrows were gone he dropped the bow and with tomahawk in one hand and hunting knife in the other he roared his death song.

It was going to be a good day to die.

*The Gnadenhutzen Massacre was only one of several atrocities committed by frontier militia soldiers before, during and after, the American Revolutionary war.

Susan Shanks was found hiding in the hollow log the next day and raised safely into adulthood. She later married William Rice and the couple lived for many years in the community of Sherburne in southern Fleming County and raised a large family. Her bloodline, like many of the early pioneers, can still be found among the citizens of northeastern Kentucky.

the 38th District. With the loss, Deming remained winless. The Lady Devils slipped to 0-7 overall and 0-2 in the district after suffering the setback.

Nicholas drops home game to 38th District foe Pendleton

Nicholas County fell short in a bid to claim its second 38th District win in as many outings on Saturday. Turnovers and missed opportunities when in possession of the basketball plagued the Nicholas County High School boys' basketball team in the second half as visiting Pendleton County took advantage of the Jackets' offensive woes to pull away to win 71-48.

Pendleton County improved to 4-3 overall and 1-0 in the 38th District after posting the win. The Wildcats claimed their second straight victory, winning for the third time in four outings.

Nicholas County dropped to 3-3 overall and 1-2 in the 38th District. The Jackets had won three of their last four games prior to Saturday's match-up versus Pendleton County.

Nicholas County slipped into the loss column after owning a three-point lead at intermission.

"We played probably the best defensive half we have ever played," Nicholas County Coach Kevin Reinhardt commented, referring to his team's first half effort versus district counterpart Pendleton County. "We were up by three at half, and we miss about 12 free throws and a few wide open layups. We came out the second half and we just didn't take care of the ball. It was a game I feel we should have won."

Two Nicholas County players checked out with a dozen points apiece. Scott Keaton and Logan Fryman led the Jackets with 12 points each. Brady Saunders scored eight points and Zach Howard added six for the Jackets.

Nicholas County was 18-of-51 from the field. The Jackets connected on three-of-13 3-point field goal attempts.

Nicholas County claimed 29 total rebounds, 16 of which came on the defensive end.

The Jackets had 21 turnovers opposed to only eight assists.

Austin Allison scored four points, Dylan Watkins and Landon Sexton chipped in two apiece and Dillon Webb and Jacob Fryman each connected on a free throw for the Jackets.

Sexton led the Nicholas County defensive effort with three steals.

(Dec. 22) before taking a break prior to Christmas. Nicholas County is scheduled to compete in the Lloyd Invitational Tournament Dec. 27-29 at Lloyd Memorial. Other teams set to play in the Lloyd Memorial-hosted tournament include host Lloyd Memorial, Convington Catholic, Ludlow, Cooper, Clinton County and Villa Madonna.

Fiscal Court hears from EMS, discusses insurance

By Melissa Mitchell
Manager
melissa@kynewsgroup.com

Rob Biddle addressed the court to check with the Fiscal Court to see if they wanted to pursue the grant towards the purchase of a new ambulance.

"I think that we are in dire need of another ambulance," Magistrate Jeff Randolph replied.

Biddle shared with the court that they had been down to just one truck due to no heat in the back of truck. The truck that was involved in an accident a couple of months ago and will not be back for approximately two weeks. The box on the ambulance took a good hit and the repairmen had to take the skin off the box to weld the frame. The estimated value of repair is around $22,500.

Biddle said if the court allowed him to seek the grant for purchasing another ambulance, there are restrictions and guidelines that will need to be followed such as a three year old truck to have less than 40,000.

Magistrate Steve Hamilton made a motion to utilize the grant money for two years for new or low mileage ambulance; Randolph seconded the motion with all approving.

Biddle asked if the court had any other issues that they would like to address. Some questions were asked about a EMS personnel handled a call unprofessionally. The EMS personnel was suspended for 24 hours.

County Attorney Dawn Letcher said, "The individual knows they were in the wrong, the court asked for a letter of apology to the family and to Medcorp. I have the letters ready for approval."

Another question that the court members had for EMS was about the delay in transferring patients from the hospital to another facility. Biddle told the court that there was a misunderstanding, that they were under the impression that the hospital staff was working on getting the paperwork prepared and EMS was waiting on another call to let them know that they were ready for them.

Back in September or October the tones dropped for EMS to respond to a cardiac arrest patient to where the EMS were delayed in responding due to radios not working properly, a issue with the repeaters prevented the workers that were away from the station to hearing the tones. Other EMS personnel contacted them by phone to make them aware of the run. The repeaters and radios have been repaired.

Biddle shared with the court that that the GPS in the ambulances were not updated and working properly. Having them updated or purchase of new ones will help them be able to get to the address better.

Judge Executive Keny Lyons made a motion to purchase two lifetime updated GPS for the ambulances, seconded by Steve Hamilton with all agreeing to purchase the GPS.

Some other concerns for the Emergency Service was the helicopter incident, Biddle stated that they was under the impression that a committee was going to be formed when the meeting took place of the Emergency personnel a few months back. The court agreed that there needed to be some form a meeting possibly quarterly to speak of concerns and issues that they are experiencing.

A recommendation was made to appoint a member from the fiscal court, city council, Emergency Management, city and county fire, police department, dispatch, hospital and sheriff office.

Steve Hamilton volunteered to be on the committee, with fiscal courts approval. The court agrees that Hamilton will be appointed to the committee. The committee will meet quarterly at the court house. The first meeting to take place will be Wednesday at 6 p.m on Jan 16th.

Health Insurance for 2013 was next on the agenda, with the court agreeing to go with Humana instead of Anthem to help save approximately $40,000. The new plan would be Option 29 of an 80/50 plan. The copays will be $25 for office visit and $50 for emergency or specialist copay. A motion was made by Jeff Randolph, with a second by Mike Webb, all approving to allow Judge Executive Lyons to sign the contract with Humana that was recommended by the insurance committee for 2013.

There was discussion on the repair of the hospital roof regarding fiscal court to help the hospital with borrowing the money for a much needed repair of the roof. The estimate cost of the repair would be $150,000, that was stated by the St. Joseph engineer. The court can go through KACO to seek the money that the hospital will be required to pay the payment with a 15 year loan, payoff in 10 years to save interest. The interest rate will be approximately 3.45% making the payment of $1,156.20 paid by the hospital. The fiscal court is only assisting the hospital with the loan to be able to get the roof repaired. A motion was made by Jimmy Wells, to execute a general operation to lease agreement with KACO FC for the purpose of borrowing money not to exceed the amount of $150,000 for a 15 year term of interest rate of 3.45% for reconstruction and repair of the roof of the Nicholas County Hospital provided that the Nicholas County Hospital Johnson Mathers Hospital contracts to reimburse the county on a monthly basis in the amount equal required by the county and to allow the Nicholas County Judge to sign all necessary documents, seconded by Darwin Mitchell all approving.

Advertisement for bids will be placed in the newspaper for the reconstruction/repair of the specs provided by the St. Joe engineer and maintained by the Nicholas County Judge Executive. Mitchell made the motion that with Hamilton seconding all approved.

Treasurer's position was on the agenda to acknowledge that the treasurer could receive benefits for a 24 hour week, for the treasurer's position only. The court can rescind it if the current treasurer Wanda Dotson happened to retire and wanted to make the position a full time position. A motion was made by Jeff Randolph seconded by Darwin Mitchell, with a 4-1 vote with Hamilton opposing and Wells sustaining his vote.

In new business it was discussed that Andrea Hinton from Drug Court asked Judge Lyons if there was anyway that community service for their drug court offenders. The court didn't see a problem with this, they asked County Attorney Dawn Letcher to check into this and let them know what procedures need to be taken to be able to pursue this.

Ramey Road residents urge drivers to follow speed limit

Residents of Pleasure Ridge Apartments, located on the left, urge drivers passing through to followed the post 25 mile per hour speed limit and to keep an eye out for those walked along the road side.

Slow down. That's the request of a number of residents who live on Ramey Road, a narrow country road in Sharpsburg leading north into Nicholas County, where it is known as Upper Sharpsburg Road.

The county line is about a mile and a half from Sharpsburg.

Sharpsburg resident William Crump has appeared before the Bath County Fiscal Court for the past three months to try and get something done about it.

Crump has said that a number of disabled residents who live in Pleasure Ridge Apartments across the road from him have come to him with complaints about the speeding traffic.

Crump explained to court members that these residents, some of whom are in wheelchairs and motorized carts, use the road to walk or travel a short distance to downtown Sharpsburg (there are no sidewalks in the area). One of the things complicating the situation is that the apartment complex is located in a "dip" in the road, making it difficult to see any cars or people on the road before reaching the apartment complex.

The road along the apartment has a posted speed limit of 25 miles per hour.

Crump confirmed that most of the drivers are going much faster than that. He also noted that many of the drivers are from Nicholas County.

Constable Wes Tincher, who also lives in Bethel, corroborated Crump's concerns. Tincher reported during Thursday's fiscal court meeting that he had conducted a traffic check one day last week along the stretch of road and said that in an hour, he had stopped 14 drivers who were driving between 15 and 25 miles per hour over the posted speed limit.

Tincher also said that the majority of those people he stopped were from Nicholas County.

Following the November meeting of the fiscal court, the country road department moved the speed limits signs further out from the apartment building to warn drivers, but it doesn't seem to have made any difference.

Tincher mentioned at a couple of the fiscal court meetings that it would be helpful to have a Kentucky State Police presence in the area. Commissioner Millard Pettit, who represents the Sharpsburg/Bethel area, also said that maybe the county could put up caution signs along the road.

During the December Fiscal Court meeting, Crump requested that the Bath County Sheriff's Department increase patrols in the area, but Sheriff John "Tuffy" Snedegar said that manpower in the sheriff's department was limited to one officer per 8 hour shift.

So until further action is taken, please exercise restraint and follow the posted speed limit along Ramey Rd./Upper Sharpsburg Rd.

OPINION

TRIANGLE NEWS HEADQUARTERS~SALTWELL~BARTERVILLE

The Barterville United Methodist Church had their annual Christmas supper last Saturday night with a good crowd attending.

Nancy Allison and Phyllis Brady, Brenda Nolen, Jennifer and Kevin Arnold and son Christian enjoyed a "Cynthiana's Got Talent Christmas Extravaganza" at Rohns Opera House one night last week. This was young people and had 4 judges who told them how they did (like the TV program) but in the end the audience has the final note. Jonathan Allison wasn't competing but sang songs to fill in. The stage was beautifully decorated.

The Saltwell United Methodist Church had their Christmas program on Sunday night with around 40 in attendance. Afterwards they had refreshments of homemade candies, etc.

Alma Mattox, Phyllis

Brady, Don Adams were among a large crowd who were so blessed by the Christmas play at the Paris Church of the Nazarene entitled "Special Delivery" on Sunday night. Sue Adams was narrator and she and also JaDawna sang specials, and help with costumes. A lot of work and planning went into this, especially by Amy and Jeff Majewski who directed it. A light supper was served afterwards and each family there received a nice big poinsettia. This small church is so active the year around.

Sympathy is extended to the Mike Phillips family on the passing of his mother last week.

The Rosehill United Methodist Church had their Christmas program last Sunday morning in the Sunday school hour, then had preaching, then had fellowship dinner with a good crowd.

Phyllis Brady took Brenda Nolen (partly for her birthday) to Kinkaid Theatre, Falmouth on Friday night to see the play "A Country Christmas Carol" which was exceptionally good, as they all are there. It was like the original play but changed some, putting more humor in it but the same great meaning. It was shown many times in Dec. Megan Crouse Reed and Blane were in it and did a fabulous job, as she always does.

The Morning Glory Baptist Church will have their annual Christmas program next Sunday night at 6:00pm. This small church had 48 in attendance Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Whitson, Jr. of near Shadynook had Bobby and Phyllis Brady over for supper on Saturday night.

Christmas: Joyful lights, presents, and smiles

By Melissa Mitchell
melissa@kynewsgroup.com

As the joyous holiday of Christmas approaches many of us are rushing around, trying to get in those last few minutes of shopping and meal preparation, trying to be sure that we don't leave anyone out.

Sometimes we need to just stop and really think about the real meaning of Christmas and to just be thankful for what we have - not what we don't have.

The news is now full of horrible events that have taken place, commercials full of items for us to spend money, reports of our government battling the fiscal cliff and of the economy in the shape that it's in. The past couple of days a tragedy took place in Newtown, Connecticut that took lives of several children and adults.

All that those little children should have been worried about at such a young age was what presents they were going to open up on Christmas morning. This horrible tragedy left many families with heavy hearts and great sorrow for the holidays without their loved one. The question is, how could someone walk in a school and create wreak havoc on so many innocent people? The holidays should be about celebrating the birth of baby Jesus and enjoying the time with our loved ones.

Have you ever thought about Christmas and what it truly symbolizes? Christmas day is when we celebrate the birth of Christ, God's greatest gift of His Son.

Some of this true meaning of Christmas can be found in the decorations:

- the Christmas tree, with its triangle shape, is the Trinity, pointing upward towards God; evergreen mean forever and eternal; green means life; the needles grow upward like hands praising God; lights mean Heaven; and gifts mean Charity and Love.

A candy maker wanted to make candy that would be a symbol for Jesus, so he made a candy cane that symbols for the birth, ministry and death of Jesus Christ. The white symbolizes the Virgin Birth and sinless nature of Jesus, the hardness of the candy is for the Solid Rock, the Foundation of the church and the promises of God. The shape of "J" represents his precious name Jesus. The candy maker didn't want the candy to be so plain so he decided to make three red small stripes to show the flogging Jesus received by which we are healed, and large red stripes symbol the bloodshed by Christ at the cross so we could have eternal life.

We are all guilty of sometimes not sharing the true meaning of Christmas. I have to say that with all of the Santa letters that came through the office this year, I saw where several children have stated that they don't want anything for Christmas, for they want to be sure that others have something, plenty of food, love and, they wanted to help Santa to deliver those presents to other little children. We can learn from so many of them and share the true meaning to where we can help prevent the tragedies that take place in the world today.

As the news continues to report about the horrible event in Connecticut, I feel that we need to speak even more of the true meaning of Christmas, teach it in our schools, so that we might be able to bring peace, comfort and joy to all.

I hope that each of you have a joyous Christmas, and I ask that each of you remember all of the little angels that are today rejoicing in heaven as well as their families that have heavy hearts during this holiday season.

Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night.

BREAD OF LIFE

Isaiah 7-14 Therefore the Lord Himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call His name Immanuel. 15 Butter and Honey shall He eat, that He may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. John 1:14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His Glory, the Glory as of the only begotten of the Father Full of Grace and truth. Jesus came into this world as a baby on a journey. It was a journey that took Him to a hill called Golgotha and to a cross but that was not His Final Destination. When Father sent His Son, Jesus His journey was to my heart and yours and whosoever will. Jesus came to live and dwell in the hearts of those that will turn and follow Him and make Him the Lord of their Life. II Corinthians 6:18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. John 3:3 Jesus says Verily, verily,

I say unto thee; Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God. As we celebrate the Birth of Eternal Everlasting Life this Christmas, My question to you is Can you see the Kingdom of God today? The only way is through the New Birth that's why Jesus came to enter into the covenant relationship with man. Look How big Our God is in John 11 V25 Jesus said unto Her, I am the resurrection, and the Life: He that Believeth in me, though He were dead, yet shall He live. 26 And believest thou this? Jesus is ALL about Life, Abundant life everlasting Life. Jesus died on the cross to Defeat and abolish death. 2 Timothy 1:10 Jesus is alive and well today He is seeking a heart to live in today. Will you ask Him to come in and live in you this Christmas and forever? Grace God's willingness to enter in to a Blood covenant with you and give you everything He has. He took your sin to give you His righteousness. He took your sickness to give you His Health. He took your poverty in order to meet ALL your needs according to His riches in Glory. Let the Holy Spirit show you what really happened when Jesus became the sacrifice that ratified your covenant with God. Let Him show you what it meant when He gave you His name (John 16:23) His Authority (Matt 28 18-20) His Armor and weapons (Ephesians 6: 10-17) When you realize what Jesus meant when He said This is the new Covenant established in my blood your life will never be the same. Jesus is on a Journey to your heart will you accept Jesus as your Lord today? Merry Christmas Our Prayer for you is that you Have a Blessed, Glorious, Prosperous, Everlasting Life in the Kingdom of God.

Christmas Band Concert

Photos by Eric Tolson

The Nicholas County Band, presented by the Nicholas County Department of Arts and Humanities, held their annual Christmas concert last Thursday night at Nicholas County High School. Under the direction of Band Director Brandon Dittgen, the members of the band performed their "Holiday of Music," which included several holiday standards and new spins on classic favorites. "These guys have been working very hard all year long," said Dittgen. "We really just want to help bring the holiday spirit to people."

Heavy rains is the cause for roads to break away on Milltown. At the intersection of Dixie Highway and Milltown, roads are cracking, and breaking away from the road side due to the bank caving in that created water to go under the road causing it to break loose and sinking. County road departments are working on the road breaking up the blacktop, rocking it and placing a culvert, and ditching out the road side to repair the road.

2012 Football players were awarded

By Eric Tolson
KYNewsGroup
eric@kynewsgroup.com

It was a very emotional evening last Wednesday at the 2012 Nicholas County High School Football team's banquet in the NC-MHS cafeteria.

After an opening prayer by Toby Howard, dinner was served by the NCHS football boosters.

After dinner, J.D. Wagoner introduced Head Coach Robert Hopkins to speak.

Hopkins began his speech by showing his gratitude to those who contributed during the season.

"This season would not have been possible if it weren't for the efforts of many people," he said. "I would like to thank the Board of Education, Nicholas County High School, Principal Marty Feltner, Assistant Principal Barbara Allison and the Site Based Council for all of their efforts in making this season great. I would also like to thank the parents for supporting the players. They are important in these players' lives as well as mine. Also, I want to give a very special thanks to Barry Bretz and Greg Letcher who have helped me all these years."

Coach Hopkins then turned to discuss the football team and their accomplishments over the course of the season.

"I personally believe that this is the best group of young men in the school," Hopkins said, motioning to the football players. "This team has accomplished so much this year alone."

Coach Hopkins went on to list the myriad accomplishments that this year's team has achieved, including becoming the first team in school history to win back to back playoff games, being ranked in the top ten Class A football teams in the state for three consecutive weeks and achieving their third consecutive winning season.

"These last four years have been fun," said Hopkins. "They have been some of the best years of my life."

Hopkins then addressed the players.

"Your foundation for life has been accomplished," he said. "But it's your job to make of your life what you can. Winning takes hard work and commitment. You need to give all that you possibly can. Football has helped these boys build positive character. You must be committed in character if you want to become leaders in your school, in your community and your life. It takes somebody special to be a winner. You have to want the most out of your life and push yourself to become leaders in the community."

Hopkins backed away from the podium to gather his words before speaking further about the players.

"You boys have made me proud to coach football for Nicholas County," he said. "Wearing the blue and white makes you a part of a fraternity. You will always be members of this team."

Hopkins then announced the players who have made

All-District teams.

Austin Allison, J.D. Wagoner, Jake Kirby and Ethan Smith were recognized for being a part of the First Team, All-District.

The Nicholas County players who had made All-EKC (Eastern Kentucky Conference) First Team were recognized next. These players were: J.D. Wagoner, Nolan Woosley and Jake Kirby.

Next, Hopkins announced team awards for players who went above and beyond during the duration of the football season.

The winners of the awards were presented as follows: the Offensive Player of the Year award was presented to J.D. Wagoner; Defensive Player of the Year was awarded to Zach Howard and Toby Howard; the Coach's Award was presented to Finn Brutman and the Mike Florence award, which is given to the player with the most drive and determination despite overpowering circumstances, was given to Ethan Smith.

"This is a very special group of young men," said Coach Hopkins. "There is no doubt that they will be successful in whatever career they choose. They will be sorely missed."

After a highlight film of all of the season most memorable moments, Nolan Woosley stepped up to the podium.

"Coach Hop, you've made the past four years very special for us," said Woosley. "We decided to give you a gift to show our appreciation."

The seniors then approached a very emotional Coach Hopkins with a large blue and white box. Upon opening the box, he discovered a very thoughtful gift: a very large quilt, made from the various shirts that the team has worn over the years.

Hopkins was speechless when he saw the gift. He thanked each senior player individually.

The final gift presented was for Carey McGuire, who had coached the boys from the sidelines throughout the season. Woosley presented McGuire with the gift: a framed photo of, what McGuire calls, one memory from this season that he will never forget.

To close the evening, Nolan Woosley led the parents and special guests in a final prayer.

A Message from the Judge's Desk

I have been debating about what to write about this month and after the tragedy in Connecticut last week I wanted to address this. I cannot get this off my mind. I don't know what it is but this tragedy has bothered me more than the others. I don't know if it is because of the time of the year or what it is. All of these senseless acts bother me because of the suffering it causes.

When we send our kids off to school we think they are going to be safe but this shows that no matter what is done to protect ourselves, there is always a way around these safeguards. We can place the blame on many things such as ownership of guns, drugs and a number of other things but it comes down to people and their behavior. I don't know if the news media contributes to this or not but some of them definitely goes overboard with their coverage.

What worries me is the fact that this can happen anywhere at anytime as it already has. With the way the world is today I feel that this will happen again. It is just a matter of when and where.

I am sure that when these families started their day they were expecting to return home safe and sound. This helps to put things in perspective for me. It makes me realize that some of the problems we have are not as important as we think they are. I am really thankful that I lived long enough to get back in church and accept the Lord as my savior. I know from experience that we can never find peace and happiness until we give ourselves to Christ. There is no drug or alcohol or anything we can take that will give us the kind of high that getting saved gives us. I remember when Brother Steve Smith baptized me that when I came up out of the water I felt the kind of happiness I had never felt before. My sins had been forgiven. Before this I would leave the house in the morning and I would worry about what might happen to me. After this I don't worry about anything because I know that whatever happens I am going to be alright. This is the kind of relief we cannot get any other way.

Maybe this is not what this column is supposed to be but I felt the need to write it. I want to encourage people to reassess their life's goals and find the happiness I have found. When we gather with our families this holiday season, please say a prayer for these families that are suffering from a loss that is so senseless and remember all of those less fortunate than ourselves. Merry Christmas and May God Bless.

Dear Santa Clause,

Hello Santa, my name is Hayden Klay Thompson, gosh can you believe I'm now a big 7 years old. 2012 has been a very busy year for me, I started a new school in August, as you know it's not easy for a boy like me to be good all the time. But for the most part I did start the year off good. I'm learning new rules and enjoying my time in Mrs. Sarah's classroom. If you ask Mom or Dad they will tell you how great they think I am. Of course I'm a little spoiled, but Mom says that's what I'm for.

Now moving on I hope you remember my address from the years before, and thanks for all the gifts from last year. You always seem to know how to make a child happy on Christmas morning. It must take months for Mrs. Clause and all your friends at the North Pole to prepare for the big day. On my list for Christmas this year I would like a new tractor and hay rake, cowboy hat, cowboy boots, new clothes and anything else you may think I would like.

I will leave you some milk and cookies under the tree, and there will be oats for the reindeers. Don't forget to stop by Mamaws and Papaws on your way to my house. My cousins Carter and Kinsee are great kids, so make sure they are on your list. Don't forget about all the friends I've made at New Beginnings Christian Academy, and Mrs. Sarah and the other great teachers who deserve something special. Enjoy your trip to Carlisle, Kentucky, and be careful.

Love your lil man,
Hayden Klay Thompson
P.S. Don't forget my Buddy Walter in Heaven this year.

NICHOLAS COUNTY SANTA LETTERS

Dear Santa,

My name is Chad Tyler Price and I am three years old. We have met several times but I just want to make sure you remember everything I have asked for. As you know, partly because of my Elf, I have been a very good boy. who can handle situations if they get out of control.”

Reid also explained how safety has always been an issue at Nicholas County Schools.

“On Mr. Parrish’s behalf, he’s been worried about safety for a long time,” said Reid. “I was leery of this because I wanted parents to be able to come and be involved at the school. But if I have to balance that out with what happened in Connecticut, or even to one child, then I would rather parents bring their kids to the door and have teachers and aides have them lead them down to the classroom rather than have so many strangers in the school. I think it would be necessary for another layer of protection for our kids.”

Mr. Reid also spoke in response to several parents’ concerns over pulling their children out of the Nicholas County School system.

“If a parent decides to transfer their children into any other school system, they’re going to run into more of the same thing as here,” said Reid. “We’re actually one of the most relaxed schools in the state when it comes to parent involvement. When they came in to do our safety assessment about seven years ago, they recommended that we implement then what we are doing now.”

“If it is necessary that a parent needs to come into the school for whatever reason, we’ll do our best to help them with whatever they need and try to make it possible for them to get in,” said Bodie Stevens. “They need to focus on the changes we’re making for the better.”

The next item discussed was the upcoming Christmas Basketball Tournament for the High School Basketball teams.

The tournament will take place in Florence, Kentucky from December 27-29.

Sponsors for the team noticed that there were lengthy gaps between games and were wondering if it would be acceptable to take the players into Cincinnati, Ohio to eat meals.

School policy states that the players would not be allowed to cross state lines without approval from the board members.

Steve Linville made the motion for the Nicholas County High School Basketball teams to travel to participate in the tournament and allow them to travel into Ohio. Chuck Ring seconded the motion. The motion passed.

Next was an acknowledgement of the receipt of several donations by Nicholas County School.

Three donations were received: a $1,000 donation from the 3M foundation to the Nicholas County Middle/High School Band Program, a $1,000 donation from 3 Star industries and Ricky Hicks to the Backpack program and a $500 donation from Miss Nancy Fightmaster for the Backpack program.

Sherry Uptegraft made the motion to accept the receipt of these donations. Chuck Ring seconded the motion. The motion passed.

The second reading and acceptance of a board policy, which benefits those who provide transportation for school events, was also discussed.

This policy states that a school club or group would reimburse the school in the amount of $2.55 for use of a school bus and fuel for school and extracurricular activities.

Chuck Ring made a motion to approve the second reading and adoption of this policy. Annette Flora seconded the motion. The motion passed.

After the discussion of these issues, Annette Flora made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Chuck Ring made a second to the motion. The motion passed and the meeting adjourned.

from him he has stated to me how things transpired in the other room that he was asked if the City would take over Biddle stated that him and Judge Lyons talked about the deal outside. Judge Lyons said that he didn’t discuss any deal. Both can’t be right.”

Judge Lyons responded, “I can tell you my side of the story, that Jim told me that the City would take over until we get the county fire department issue resolved. I didn’t ask for the help start with, don’t get me wrong I appreciate that they stepped up to help us out. But I don’t like the fact that it has been turned around. When I came up here tonight that the fire board would agree to take care of this, I was going to recommend to the court is to pay half of what the board didn’t pay. I don’t want to sit here another six months arguing over this fire bill!”

Morford said, “I don’t think there is a person on the fireboard that would stand here tonight in front you that we have not tried to do something to get this thing worked out but we can’t get anybody to listen to us.”

Magistrate Randolph, “There was a ordeal across the street, that no one knew was going to happen, and no one received a bill for this from the county or the other departments, and here we are sitting here arguing over $1,875, when I know that the bill would cost more than $4,000 for the ordeal on North Locust Street in June. Does everyone agree with that?”

Magistrate Randolph asked the Mayor if he would agree with this. The mayor stated that he would agree with that, that the bill would cost more than the $4,000 if all departments billed the city. Randolph stated that he was glad whoever made the call for assistance from the county and surrounding areas and that it was a very good call that was made because a entire block could have been destroyed.

Mayor Booth replied with that we could have charged a lot more and I mean a lot more like

Magistrate Randolph asked why didn’t you charge that, “I thought you were supposed to do what is right here.”

Booth responded, “We are trying to do what is right, we didn’t want to bankrupt this county, we only allot for them 30 runs a year, and they are way over that due to helping out the county, are equipment took a beating on the county roads that our equipment is not used to. We still have several months to cover for runs. I am going to take up for the City fire fighters, they risk their life, damaged some of the trucks on the county roads, and damage of equipment and 2 or 3 suits. We just want to get paid for what we provided service for. It has nothing to do with politics, I don’t like selling newspapers for the newspaper I don’t like the controversy. All this is doing is selling newspapers of what is going on now. I am here before you now to get this settled. I don’t want to go to court, but will if we need to. We are all men and women here let’s get it paid. You won’t see another bill for it. On the mutual aid agreement I have not signed it and I won’t, your mutual aid agreement does not have funding in there, we are here and having that meeting that everyone wants to have, we are going to add funding in that we it is optional. We took the liability without hesitation we could have sent a bill for $20,000 equipment took a beating, we done so without hesitation and we are not trying to make money to offset cost.”

Booth added, “You all had to purchase a fire truck and if we overturned a truck the insurance would go through the roof. That didn’t happen thank the Lord, I’m not here to down people or anything like that I am here because I feel in my heart this is the right thing.”

Judge Lyons suggested that the court pay half of the bill and the fire board pay the remaining half. And if the Fire Board wants to send a bill to the city then that is the Fire Board not the county. The County has nothing do with that.

Magistrate Steve Hamilton made a motion for the court to pay half of the bill “don’t know if it is good or bad, and hope that the fire board will pay the remaining half.”

“We didn’t charge for every run.” Biddle replied.

Magistrate Randolph questioned Mayor Booth what would happen if the City received a bill from the County Fire Department for the requested help from the County Fire Department on the fire run on North Locust Street during June, along with other surrounding counties?

Booth replied, “We will deal with it when we get it.”

A second was made by Magistrate Mike Webb with a vote of 5-1, Randolph opposed to pay half of the bill in the amount of $2,307.50.

Several expressed gratitude for the city stepping up and helping out during a time of need.

Robertson County helps pay for ambulance service

By Eric Tolson
KYNewsGroup
eric@kynewsgroup.com

Robertson County will pay $5,000 more for ambulance assistance from Nicholas County next year, according to the consensus of last Friday's meeting of the Robertson County Fiscal Court.

Special guest Kenny Lyons, Nicholas County Judge-Executive, spoke to the members of the Robertson County Fiscal Court at their recent meeting on the morning of December 14.

"It's very expensive to pay for an ambulance service, especially in today's economy," said Lyons. "Our ambulance in Nicholas County is currently in a five-year contract and costs approximately $250,000 per year for a 24/7 crew. This money comes out of the general fund for the county. We're more than happy to help Robertson County with our ambulance service. And all we ask is for a little financial assistance."

After being asked by Billy Allison, Robertson County Judge-Executive, what would be an appropriate amount of compensation, Lyons responded that $5,000 per year would be sufficient.

"The thing is that MedCorp provides the crew for an ambulance, while we provide utilities and equipment," said Lyons. "This has been rather costly. MedCorp recently sold out and went into reorganization, but we've been lucky enough to keep our contract with them. What we normally charge for an ambulance run, we often don't get all of that. Most of our patients either have medical insurance or Medicare. We may charge a lot of money for runs and transports, but we seldom get that money. You don't have to come to a decision today, all I'm asking is that you consider my proposal."

After Lyons had spoken, the members of the fiscal court discussed his request.

"We will have to pay for this at some point," said Dee Whitaker. "They are providing a good service for us that we can't afford to provide. We can either pay for this now or later."

The members of the fiscal court then discussed a recent call in which a Robertson County resident had suffered a stroke and, after checking his vital signs, determined that the patient did not need to go to the hospital.

However, he was transported by car later after suffering a stroke.

"I really do appreciate the service that they provide in helping our citizens with immediate medical attention," said Ricky Myers. "We really need to have an ambulance service of our own."

Sue Conley made a motion for the Robertson County Fiscal Court to give Nicholas County $5,000 for the year of 2013 for compensation, and to look into the matter further for subsequent years. Dee Whitaker seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Another matter discussed at the meeting was the issue of earthquake insurance for Robertson County.

"We have never had earthquake insurance, mainly because it's never been an issue before," said Billy Allison. "Our current policy says that we are currently not covered in the event of an earthquake."

This matter is in reference to a recent tremor that was felt in several Northern Kentucky Counties and has made the issue a matter of discussion.

The general consensus of the fiscal court members was that earthquake insurance for the county seemed unnecessary.

Terry Cracraft made a motion to decline the earthquake insurance for Robertson County. Troy Martin seconded the motion. The motion passed.

The next matter of discussion was the payment of the Sheriff's projected budget for the next fiscal year.

A motion was made by Terry Cracraft for the fiscal court to approve the Sheriff's annual budget for the 2013 fiscal year. The motion was seconded by Sue Conley. The motion passed.

The next issue was the matter of approval being needed for the paying of the general fund bills.

One of the major aspects of the bill was a glaring item of guttering being repaired and grates put on the front of the courthouse.

"The repairs have been made and the bill has been paid," said Sue Conley. "The total cost of the bill was approximately $230."

A motion was made by Ricky Myers for the fiscal court to pay the general fund bills. Sue Conley seconded the motion. The motion passed.

The Road Fund bill was the next item up for discussion.

Troy Martin made a motion for the fiscal court to pay the Road Fund bill. Dee Whitaker seconded the motion. The motion passed.

The Jail Bill was the next item discussed by the fiscal court.

An amount of $2,210 was added onto the bill for three prisoners, two of which served 30 days and one for five days.

A motion was made by Terry Cracraft for the fiscal court to pay the jail bill for the month. Troy Martin seconded the motion. The motion passed.

After these discussions, Sue Conley made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Terry Cracraft seconded the motion and the meeting was adjourned.

Lady Devils drop district games to Pendleton, Nicholas

The Deming Lady Devils dropped a pair of games at home to 38th District rivals Pendleton County and Nicholas County last week.

On Wednesday (Dec. 12), Pendleton County pulled away to defeat the Lady Devils 77-48. Visiting Pendleton County claimed its second straight win, improving to 3-2 overall and opening 38th District play 1-0.

The Lady Devils suffered their second district loss in as many outings on Friday, falling to visiting Nicholas County. One of the 10th Region's most improved teams, Nicholas County defeated the Lady Devils 77-50.

Deming, which features only six players on its roster, slipped to 0-7 overall after suffering the loss to Nicholas County. The Lady Devils dropped to 0-2 in the 38th District.

Deming was back in action on Monday night, hosting Bracken County for a non-district match-up. Results from the Deming-Bracken County girls' basketball game were unavailable. Deming was visiting Western Hills on Tuesday night for its final game in 2012.

The Deming girls' basketball team is now on a lengthy layoff. The Lady Devils are scheduled to visit Nicholas County when they return to action on Jan. 4. The remainder of the January portion of Deming's schedule shapes up as follows: Jan. 5 - Dixie Heights (home), Jan. 7 - Bracken County (10th Region All "A" Classic), Jan. 12 - Augusta (away), Jan. 14 - Calvary Christian (home), Jan. 16 - Harrison County (away), Jan. 19 - Menifee County (away), Jan. 24 - Bellevue (away), Jan. 28 - Mason County (home), Jan. 30 - St. Patrick (away).

Devils drop home game to Bath County

The Deming Black Devils encountered a hot-shooting group of Bath County Wildcats Tuesday night (Dec. 11). Visiting Bath County, under the guidance of first-year head coach Larry Tiller outscored Deming 17-6 in the opening quarter and never looked back, defeating the Devils 89-43.

Bath County outscored Deming in each quarter.

With the win, Bath County halted a two-game losing skid. As a result of the return to the win column, Bath County improved to 4-2.

Fifteen Bath County players broke into the scoring column as the Wildcats pulled away to win convincingly.

Deming was forced to play from behind throughout the early-season game. Bath County eventually
